Confederacy Site Beautification Planned by Garden Clubs

With the appropriation of $300.00 by the Council of Garden Clubs of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County, Beautification of the Robert E. Lee Amphitheatre site got under way this week. Frederic Huette, superintendent of Parks and Cemeteries for the City of Norfolk, met with Mrs. J. W. Field, president of the council, and Mrs. John Anderson, Beautification chairman, at the theatre site to make final plans for the initial plantings which will begin next week. With a contribution of $100.00 from the Virginia Beach Chamber of Commerce and a $50.00 contribution from the Virginia Beach Garden Club, the project now has $450.00. It is anticipated that other Garden Clubs will make individual contributions of money and time to the project.

In voting to take this project on, the Council of Garden Clubs expressed their desire to follow through on a long range plan that will eventually make the theatre site one of the major attractions of the area. The master beautification plan includes the Audience Area of the Amphitheatre as well as the grounds and walk ways around the site. It is hoped that a picnic area will be completed in time for use this summer by Tide water Residents.

Radio Station Here Observing National Month

Radio Station WBOF is joining with more than 3,000 radio stations throughout the United States in observing May as National Radio Month. Leo Hoarty, the station's general manager, announced this week.

"Radio... Always in Tune With You," is the theme of the observance. During the month, the station is broadcasting a series of special announcements and programs of information about radio's service to its listeners, the community and the nation.

Mr. Hoarty said, "The theme, 'Radio... Always in Tune With You,' was chosen because it conveys the personal service that radio renders in entertaining and informing people around the clock, wherever they may be."

The nationwide observance of Radio Month is sponsored by the National Association of Broadcasters, Washington, and Radio Advertising Bureau, New York.

"Being picked" means he has a place on a uniformed team of the American League of Virginia Beach Little League Baseball. It means he is one of the chosen 24 out of the hustling 85 youngsters who aspire to become the Mustangs and Mantles of tomorrow.

The American League opens its season on Friday, May 29 at 6:30 in the afternoon. There will be two games: the first between the Cubs and the Rotarians; the second, between the Tigers and the Sports. The Virginia Beach High School stadium will serve as the ball park for all the American League games which will be played throughout the summer on Tuesdays and Fridays.

According to L. H. Potter, president of the American League, pregame festivities are being planned and will be announced at a later date. Mr. Potter also requests that anyone who has Little League decals or money turn them in at the announcer's stand during the first game.

The teams and their coaches are: Tigers, Ken Babb; Rotarians, Roy Dowe, Cuba, Bill Renn; Sports, Gaston Holloway. Regular practice sessions are in progress this week. As explained by D. E. Entsminger, player agent, the boys who did not make a regular team will still be able to play a lot of organized ball. A farm-system is being arranged. And who knows, perhaps, some team player may not live up to his press, then how 'ya gonna keep 'em down on the farm!

Drama Offers Passes in New Season Setup

For the 1959 season, "The Confederacy," Paul Green's epic outdoor drama at Virginia Beach, will make available to Tidewater residents a "Host Pass" which will enable the Bearer to attend as many performances as he desires. This plan will afford residents of the area an opportunity to attend friends and relatives to performances by paying only the initial cost of the "Host Pass" for themselves. Public relations director, Wade Williams, has contacted some 75 civic, service and social clubs in the area, making the plan available to their membership. "Host Passes" are available to all residents of the Tidewater area, for $4.00. They must be purchased by June 1st and may be obtained by sending your money order or check to "The Confederacy," Box 506, Virginia Beach, Virginia. According to Williams, a number of Clubs have subscribed 100% to the "Host" plan. 1000 "Host Passes" have been allocated for the 1959 season which opens June 22nd.

PROCLAMATION SENIOR CITIZENS MONTH MAY, 1959

The advancement of medical science is prolonging the lives of our people and persons of retirement age become greater year by year; and Virginia is not a state where its people, regardless of age, are allowed to go hungry or be homeless and be without medical treatment, or, with the aging, to live their last years in poverty or discomfort or without the necessities of life.

The Commonwealth of Virginia has created the Commission on the Aging for the purpose of studying the economic and physical condition of the residents of the Commonwealth 65 years of age and over, and the employment, medical, educational, recreational and housing needs available to them with the view of determining the needs and problems of such persons and to recommend such co-ordination of and changes in such services and facilities of existing State agencies as will make them of greater benefit to the aging and more responsive to their needs; and it is our desire to bring the attention of the public the value, power, strength, dignity and the importance of our senior citizens who have attained maturity in life and who have contributed so much in the past to building our cities, our states and our nation.

It becomes incumbent upon all of us to join together in finding ways to utilize the experience and services of our senior citizens whereby they may be active and self-supporting and share in our community life so that their golden years may be made more enjoyable to themselves and to their families and more profitable to our society.

Therefore, I, J. Lindsay Almond, Jr., Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, do hereby invite and urge the people of Virginia to co-operate with all organizations, both public and private, in recognizing the needs and requirements, particularly the employment of our senior citizens during "Senior Citizens Month," May, 1959.

New Facility Will Offer Complete Service with Approximately 7,000 Books

Establishment on Twenty-second Street Will Serve Residents of City and County

The Virginia Beach-Princess Anne County public library will open next Sunday with appropriate ceremonies, according to an announcement by the Board of Trustees of the library.

The public library is located at 302 Twenty-second street and inauguration ceremonies are scheduled to be held Sunday, at 2 p.m. The public is invited to attend and to inspect the new facility between the hours of 2 and 5 p.m. on Sunday.

Virginia Beach Mayor Frank A. Dusch and Richard J. Webbon, executive secretary to the Princess Anne County Board of Supervisors, will dedicate the new library, according to the announcement.

A unique and pleasant feature of the opening ceremonies will be the official ribbon cutting performed by Mrs. W. S. Johns, who first started a library here many years ago and has been the mainstay in maintaining a library for years in the Community House.

The Rev. Henry Morgan, president of the Virginia Beach Ministerial Association, will offer the opening prayer.

The library will open with a collection of approximately 7,000 books of every type, magazines, newspapers, government publications and considerable reference material. There will be no charge for use of the library by residents of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County.

Hours announced for the library are from 2 until 8 p.m. on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays and from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays. The library will open for the first time on Tuesday, May 12. It was announced.

Mrs. Aurora G. Shinn has been engaged as librarian and Mrs. William F. Brand is the secretary. It is planned to open a children's section in early fall.

Bookmobile service in the county will be inaugurated in mid-June. A bookmobile schedule is now being set up in response to the interest shown in various areas.

The new Public Library is the result of a project undertaken in 1956 by the Junior Woman's Club of Princess Anne County, assisted by the Senior Woman's Club. They enlisted the aid of most of the civic groups in the city and county in raising funds for the project.

Thirty-eight thousand dollars was pledged by the middle of 1958 as a result of such drives as Operation Icing, Radio and Phone Day, and the Secret Nine.

At the end of May, 1958, the late Judge Floyd E. Kellam appointed a Library Board representing both the city and the county. The Board applied for an establishment grant from the Virginia State Library and received $42,000 in state and federal funds over a two-year foundation period. The city and county contributed a tax base for the Library of $15,000. With this additional financing, the Board was able to purchase a building, remodel and furnish it, hire a staff and contract for the building of a bookmobile which would bring service to the county.

The need for a Public Library had been felt for a long time in the area, although some library service had been provided by the Municipal League Library in the old Community House. However, service was limited by lack of funds and space.

Members of the Library Board are: Mr. Lewis E. Smith, Mr. Frank Cox, Mrs. Paul B. Maestas, Mrs. Nere E. Day Jr., Mrs. Guy E. Robertson and Mrs. William Ferrell.

The Library has been in the process of organizing itself since November, 1958. Volunteers from the Junior Woman's Club of Princess Anne County, Junior League, Temple Emanuel Sisterhood, and local residents have assisted.

EDITORIAL SPEAKING

The Public Library

Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County will mark a community milestone Sunday afternoon when the new Virginia Beach-Princess Anne County Public Library is dedicated. It marks a significant step in community progress.

The realization of a public library for the city and county also represents the fulfillment of the dreams of many persons. The reality of a public library here also is a result of much work by many individuals and groups.

The new library will open with a very creditable collection of books and periodicals and will add greatly to the cultural and educational environment of this area.

It is the first accredited public library for this community.

Opening ceremonies for the new library are set for Sunday afternoon at the library building on Twenty-second street. The public is invited and a unique feature of the program is that Mrs. W. S. Johns will cut the ribbon officially opening the library. Mrs. Johns has maintained, largely through her own efforts, a library here for years and it is fitting that she has been selected for the ribbon cutting ceremony.

We congratulate the Board of Trustees and the entire community for the establishment of a public library here. It has been a joint community effort that will become a reality on Sunday afternoon.

May Is Mental Health Month

The month of May is being observed this year, as in past years, as Mental Health Month throughout the Nation. It is hoped that this observance will further emphasize the need of aiding the mentally sick persons and to encourage those not so afflicted to take time out to study this tremendous health problem.

When we speak about mental illness, we generally think in terms of adults. Few people realize that mental illness affects children too.

The fact is that today there are hundreds of thousands of young children and adolescents suffering from disabling mental disorders. About 4,000 young children and adolescents are admitted to mental hospitals each year with very serious mental illness. Another 200,000 receive out-patient care in mental health clinics. But the great majority receive no treatment at all.

Of the 1,300 mental health clinics in the U.S., most are concentrated in a few states. Most states have only enough clinic services to take care of a few hundred children a year. Most clinics have long waiting lists.

Furthermore, childhood mental illness often goes undetected because few schools have the necessary mental health counseling and guidance services.

Salasky Name Long Known in Optical Group

The name Salasky in the Tidewater Area is synonymous with eye care. For nearly 60 years the Salasky Optical Company has been the by-word of the people of Tidewater. Dr. Frank Salasky, a pioneer in the field of eyecare and the practice of optometry, was so endeared to his work that he saw to it that his children would follow in his steps.

Three of his boys, Arthur, Bennett and Stanley at their proper times became optometrists, licensed to practice in the State of Virginia, hung out their shingle in the Tidewater Area. Another son, Dr. Milton Salasky, to complete the eyecare practice, became an eye physician or ophthalmologist. The family heritage of eyecare thus has been passed on from father to sons.

Through these years the name Salasky has continued to shine its light on the Tidewater horizon and the sons of the family have endeavored themselves to the work pioneered by Dr. Frank Salasky.

It is understandable how the name Salasky has been like a lighthouse to light the way for so many people, for so many years in the Tidewater Area.

As the father, Dr. Frank Salasky was one of the pioneers in his field in the Tidewater Area, so is his son, Dr. Stanley Salasky the pioneer optometrist. Back in 1946 there were no optical facilities on the Beach. Dr. Stanley Salasky saw the need of this service for the health and welfare of eyecare of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County and opened an office on 19th street in the Jefferson Hotel Building. Since then his office has had various locations to better serve his patients and now he is in the process of relocating his office to still better serve the needs of this growing city and county.

Within a short time the new address of the office will be 310 31st Street, Virginia Beach's newest shopping center.

The incoming officers are as follows: Mrs. Delmar E. Sr., president; Mrs. George Dana, first vice president; Mrs. Joseph Watson, second vice president; Mrs. Maurice Nordlinger, recording secretary; Mrs. Charles Hunter, corresponding secretary; Mrs. D. J. Dee, historian; Mrs. Colie Ackles, treasurer; Mrs. William Temple, parliamentarian.

(Paid Political Advertisement)

To the Citizens of Princess Anne County and the City of Virginia Beach:

On Sunday, May 3, 1959, there was an ad carried in the Virginian-Pilot and unsigned by any individual but signed Independent Campaign Committee. We do not know whether this ad was put out by Hudgins-Malbon ticket because neither one of them signed their name to it. In this ad they asked the question "Is it good government if the wife of a public official, who is a candidate for office, is a registrar in the primary in which her husband is competing?" It is true that C. Roger Malbon, who is a candidate for Sheriff on the Hudgins-Malbon ticket, did serve as Sheriff and ran for election while his father was the secretary of the County Electoral Board (which Board appointed all registrars, which registrars were appointed by Malbon's father and which same registrars are now candidates with Malbon on the so called Hudgins-Malbon ticket. It is true that William F. Hudgins, who was Clerk of the Court and who was defeated when he sought re-election to this office, did have his deputy serving as registrar contrary to law. If Mr. Malbon wants to criticize his own father (so far as we are concerned, he is an honorable gentleman) and his deputies, that is his privilege. If Mr. Hudgins wants to criticize his own deputy, that is his privilege. If these candidates will condemn their own fathers and deputies, it is quite natural to expect them to level innuendos, half truths and mud slinging statements at us, who are candidates seeking re-election in the primary of July 14th.

Not in the time of any elected public official now serving Princess Anne County has the County had to pay anything like 5 1/2% for long term or short term bonds. If they had to do it while Mr. Hudgins or Mr. Malbon were in office and they want to criticize themselves, that is their privilege.

We remind Mr. Hudgins and Mr. Malbon that there are still unanswered questions in previous campaigns which they should tell the public about. When they have given the citizens of the County and the City a complete record of their past performances, they will be in a much better position to ask questions of others.

42 Juniors Take Scholarship Test

Forty-two Juniors at the Virginia Beach High School have taken the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test. Mr. James A. Johnson, Jr., principal, announced today.

The test is the first step in competition for Merit Scholarships provided by some 80 corporations, foundations, professional societies and individuals in aid of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. Some $15 million Merit Scholarships have been awarded in the first four years of the program.

Some 10,000 semifinalists, the highest score in each grade, will be named early next fall. Each semifinalist will take a second examination. Those who repeat their high performance on the second examination will become finalists. Further evaluation of their grades, citizenship, and extra-curricular achievements will follow, and the winners will be announced in the spring of 1960.

The test results will be reported to participating schools before the beginning of the senior year, in time for use by seniors and their class advisors. The scores may also be used in many high schools to help students make decisions about college and the most appropriate courses to major in. Many students throughout the country who do not expect to win have registered for the test in order to learn more about the individual strengths and weaknesses.

Each Merit Scholarship carries a stipend based on the need of each individual winner, and is renewable annually without further competitive examination. The average stipend for the past year has been $700 per year. The minimum award in the 1959-60 program will be $100 a year and a maximum will be $1500 a year.

Oceana Air Base To Be Represented At Huge Air Show

Among the U. S. Navy's representatives at the huge Armed Forces Air Show at Andrews Air Force Base near Washington, D.C. on the 9th and 10th of May will be Fighter Squadron Twenty One from the Naval Air Station, Oceana. Fighting Twenty-One will display the Navy's super-sonic, swept-wing, Gruman, F11F-1 "Tiger," jet plane. Cmdr. W. G. Coulter, commanding officer of Fighting Twenty One, accompanied by Cmdr. C. R. (Buzz) Sawyer, Lt. (P) G. L. Edwards, RCN, Lt. W. P. Kelly, Lt. H. R. Hubbard, Lt. (j.g.) N. H. Prothers, and Lt. (j.g.) W. D. Zirbel will perform during the mass air show at Andrews AFB in commemoration of "Armed Forces Day."

Fighting Twenty-One's contribution to the Air Show will be given an international flavor by the presence of Lt. G. L. Edwards of the Royal Canadian Navy. Lieutenant Edwards is serving with VF-21 as a foreign exchange pilot. Beach Lawn Chapel Calls R. G. Salter As First Pastor

The steadily growing Beach Lawn Baptist Chapel, now meeting in the W. T. Cooke Elementary School on 15th Street, has called the Rev. Richard G. Salter as the first pastor of the church. Called to serve in a temporary capacity, Rev. Salter assumed his pastoral duties on May 1. At present, Rev. Salter is also the Supply Officer of Fleet Aircraft Service Squadron Five at NAS, Oceana; however, he is leaving the Navy in June to devote full time to his ministerial duties. A graduate of the University of North Carolina, Rev. Salter plans to continue his studies for the ministry at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary at Wake Forest, N.C. In his capacity as pastor of the Beach Lawn Baptist Chapel, Rev. Salter also serves as the associate pastor of the Thalia Lynn Baptist Church, who, under the leadership of Rev. E. I. Mosher, is sponsoring the Chapel. Rev. Salter will be examined by an Ordination Council of Norfolk Baptist Ministers on May 11 and the service of ordination for the general public will be announced. Rev. Salter is married to the former Miss Alice Vivian Mattox of Jacksonville, Fla. and their family includes two sons, Richard, 11, and John, eight. The Rev. and Mrs. Salter have made their home at 409 54th Street, Virginia Beach, for nearly three years and have been active in churches in Virginia and North Carolina for the past years.

Rev. Salter invites all who live in southside Virginia Beach to join with the Beach Lawn membership of more than 75 in Sunday morning worship. The Sunday School, which begins at 8:45 a.m., for all ages, broke all attendance records last Sunday. Sunday morning worship services are held at 11 a.m. A nursery is provided for infants and toddlers.

FORT STORY TELLINGS

MAY 8 DESIGNATED HERE

AS "COL. WOODS DAY" May 8 has been designated as "Colonel Woods Day" here in honor of the post commander, who is departing May 12 for New Orleans.

As part of the celebration, all personnel except for necessary details will be given a work free day on the 8th.

The NCOs will entertain Colonel Woods from 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. During this time he will visit the NCOs of all units. From noon to one-thirty, a cocktail hour and luncheon will be held at the NCO club. First Sergeants will act as an honor guard at the Club for Col. Woods and his family.

Officers will start their entertainment with cocktails at the Officers' Club at 5:30 p.m. This will be followed by an Ox Roast and an informal remarks session. Then dancing will start at 9 p.m. and last until midnight.

There will be no parades, so the last garrison review served as his farewell address.

Col. Woods is to report to New Orleans prior to May 15. He will be in charge of the Division of Services for the Gulf Transportation Terminal Command.

JEAN CORRELL VOTED
MISS FORT STORY

A 20-year-old stewardess for Capital Airlines was chosen "Miss Fort Story" this week by the personnel of this command.

Miss Jean Correll, presently of Virginia Beach, received over 200 votes more than her nearest competitor.

She was chosen from ballots submitted by 940 men in the theater. The ballots were counted by the Board of Governors of the NCO Club.

Miss Correll attends William and Mary at night and has helped the Virginia Beach Chamber of Commerce in preparing promotion material for the summer. Her home is in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania.

Other finalists were Miss Nancy Duckworth of Virginia Beach, Miss Susie Darden of Virginia Beach, and Miss Ida Fay McMath of Chesapeake Beach.

Col. George E. Woods, Jr., Post Commander, presented a trophy and ribbons to Miss Correll, claiming her as "Miss Fort Story" and Honorary Recruiter.

The contest, along with a show, was sponsored by the Post Recruitment Office.

SOLDIER OF THE MONTH
 Specialist Carl E. Jenkins of Headquarters Detachment Tenth Transportation Battalion, has been selected as the Soldier of the Month for Fort Story.

Jenkins was chosen by a board for his neat appearance and knowledge of military and current events.

A graduate of Suffolk, Va., high school, he entered the Army in 1957 at Fort Dix, New Jersey.

While at Fort Gordon for basic training, he was given an award for having the highest score in his class on the rifle range.

He is a member of the NCO Club and took on a leadership position in the club's first year.

Public Support Sought in War On Filth in Mail

(Ed. Note: This is the first of two articles published in the public utility trade — the unsolicited letter—"barons of obscenity" today are sending unwelcome letters into our mail boxes, much of it directed to teen-age youngsters, Postmaster Nash explained.)

Postmaster Marshall M. Nash Jr. appealed for public support today in the nationwide war Postmaster General Arthur W. Summerfield has declared on the "ruthless mail order merchants in filth who are violating the honor of the nation in defiance of the national government."

Using one of the nation's most cherished privileges to carry out their utility trade — the unsolicited letter—"barons of obscenity" today are sending unwelcome letters into our mail boxes, much of it directed to teen-age youngsters, Postmaster Nash explained.

The materials offered for sale include filthy films and books, and dirty pictures, slides and related filth, advertised in highly objectionable circulars that are being sent indiscriminately to homes here and all over the nation, he said.

Postmaster General Summerfield has advised the local postmaster that $200,000,000 is being taken in annually by large mail order dealers in pornography and obscenity. Postal authorities here, as well as those over the nation, receive complaints from many groups. Nationally, complaints are reported from leading clergymen, school groups, newspaper editors and alarmed parents.

During a recent 12-month period, the local postmaster was advised postal inspectors conducted 2,000 investigations on obscene and pornographic mail and caused the arrest of 233 persons "testing in this filth." This is an increase of 25 per cent over the previous year, and an all-time high, according to the Postmaster General. Moreover, Mr. Summerfield has emphasized to local postal officials that the filth is increasing.

Indicative of the extensive operations of the filth factories that are invading the homes of the nation with their suggestive advertisements and dirty circulars, Mr. Summerfield noted that within the past few weeks simultaneous raids by U.S. Marshals and postal inspectors in New York City resulted in seizure of 13 tons of dirty films, slides, photographs and other smut, and a mailing list, used nationally, containing 100,000 names.

Another raid in recent days yielded huge quantities of filth from the premises of a Santa Monica, California, dealer in especially objectionable films and photographs.

"No longer do dealers in smut surreptitiously serve only a few adults," the local postmaster explained. "They brazenly solicit our children, sending their material indiscriminately and without conscience into our home mail boxes." "For example," Mr. Nash noted, "the Postmaster General has advised me of cases where teenagers wrote away for auto parts and received later 'sex instructions' advertisements; new graduating classes whose names were taken from newspapers by filth merchants who circulated every member of the class; of youngsters who wrote in for model airplane catalogs, or a set of stamps, and later received materials on films portraying sex and perversion."

Complaints are also being received in increasing numbers over the nation inviting solicitation from filth factories of innocent teen-age girls, housewives, and even Cup Scouts, the postmaster noted.

The Post Office Department is diligently trying to clean up the mails," Postmaster General Summerfield explained recently to Congress, which is considering new measures to deal with this growing national threat. "But," Mr. Summerfield added, "the Post Office Department has been subjected frequently to attack and ridicule by those who hope to profit personally from unrestricted mailings of filth or those who are contenting filth with license—unwillingly give their assistance."

"There appear to be two basic reasons for the increasing volume of filth in the mails," he continued. "First, the tremendous profits that are realized from a relatively small capital investment, and secondly, the very broad definition of obscenity handed down by certain courts—including those in certain Metropolitan Areas—namely Los Angeles and New York."

Some ratings, he concluded, "have established virtual sanctuaries. From these sanctuaries, he explained, filth dealers have operated with impunity in developing their huge business in filth, flooding this community and others with materials which constitute the most serious moral and social problems in the United States today."

WBOF Wins Four Broadcasting Awards May 2

Winning news awards from the Virginia Associated Press Broadcasters is getting to be "old hat" for WBOF. On Saturday May 2, at the National Press Club in Washington, D.C., the station walked away with three more: one first place and two second place awards, and one honorable mention. This makes 11 first place, four second place, one third place and two honorable mention awards in four years of operation.

At the banquet over which he was presiding as president of the Association, Leo Hoarty joked about the prizes: "We can't stop winning now," he said. "I figure we need about eight more to paper one of our studios." The station plans to expand by September in anticipation of operating on 5000 watts. WBOF is now a 1000 watt broadcast station. The Federal Communication Commission has approved the expanded facility.

Tom Carlin, a member of the faculty of William and Mary in Norfolk, was presented awards in two categories for shows written and produced by him and aired on his own program, "Critique," which is broadcast every Sunday afternoon over WBOF.

To win first place in special events, Leo Hoarty and Tom Carlin set out one night last summer in search of a ghost called Old Crump. As a result of the evening, they placed together a hilarious 15-minute film, filled with some tingling tales about invisible forces and flying objects.

The story started unfolding on the day they heard about Eugene W. Burroughs and Henry Stone, two long time residents of this area. Mr. Stone died recently. Whenever Burroughs and Stone got together, so the story goes, strange things began to happen. Walls turned to rubber. Pot-bellied slaves moved eerily around the room. Pillows breathed with invisible lungs, and faint-hearted observers suddenly deduced they forgot about important engagements elsewhere.

The 15-minute program was filled with reminiscences of relatives, friends and neighbors who had "observed" the phenomenon over the years. It was good fun but Old Crump failed to appear that night. What's more, Hoarty and Carlin both admit they were glad he didn't.

A second place award was presented to Tom Carlin for a news commentary on integration.

A second place award in the category of sports was awarded Fred Isaacs for a series of sports interviews with celebrities such as Vincent Price, Paul Dietzel, D. C. "Peabody" Walker and Lew Hayes.

WBOF also received an honorable mention for a farm news program. This award was shared by James Allen, Assessor, County Agent, Dick Cockrell, County Agent and Elizabeth Deal, Home Demonstration Agent for Princess Anne County.

WBOF has also won two Douglas Southall Freeman Awards in succession, the State's highest award for Public Service.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Call It—
 "Helping Bud to Blossom"

When his wife left on a visit, Bud Harper promised to take care of her potted plants. He moved them out to the porch where he'd be sure to see them—and then forgot them.

Week later, Mrs. Harper asked about the plants in a letter. Bud rushed out, expecting to find them dead. But they were in perfect shape—even the pots had been rearranged.

Naturally, Bud was mystified. Then he found a note on one of the plants: "We'll lose this one unless you put Ammonium Sulphate on it. Psst... (He's the milkman.)

From where I sit, "neighborhood" is a wonderful thing, particularly when it's put into practice every day. This week, for example, why not have some neighbors in for a dose of beer or a cup of coffee? (Serving them their preference is better—than a "neighborhood" too.)

The MIXING BOWL .. IT'S Fun TO COOK

By LUCILE CLARK
SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food facts and fables... for practical, down-to-earth recipes that please both palate and pocketbook, read the "Mixing Bowl" by Lucile Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

May often brings warm breezes, freshly cut flowers and longing to spend a week-end in the country, but the most important event is Mother's Day.

Remember, the menu should be reserved for all of Mom's favorite dishes.

A mighty tempting dish and one that is a favorite of the ladies is "Stuffed Beef Birds".

The main dish — Stuffed Beef Birds (beef round steak), is dressed in its spring finery before it comes to the table. A smooth textured sour cream sauce adds that special elegant touch, which says "it's Spring".

The stuffing which may be used in this beef delicacy is news in itself; there's no limit to the kinds from which you can choose. You might fill the Beef Birds with your own favorite, well-seasoned bread stuffing, or a stuffing flavored with exotic herbs and spices.

After the birds have been stuffed, they are browned slowly in shortening. Then a small amount of liquid is added, the frying pan is covered and the meat slowly cooked for 1 1/2 to 2 hours or until birds are tender.

The suggested menu for Mother's Day including the Beef Birds sounds mighty tempting—but if you are sure of Mom's favorites you make out a menu just exactly as she would wish for and surprise her.

Mother's Day Menu
Chilled tomato juice, stuffed beef birds, rice, potatoes, French cut green beans with toasted almonds, hot biscuits, butter, pineapple upside down cake, coffee, tea, milk.

For Mother's Day Sunday morning breakfast—a time to let Mom really have a surprise—prepare a feast of a breakfast for her.

Fresh pineapple, scrambled eggs with pork sausage, Bohemian coffee cake, coffee.

The Bohemian Coffee Cake is actually a rich quick bread. Here is the recipe:
Bohemian Coffee Cake
3 cups sifted enriched flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup white sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup brown sugar
1 cup lard
1 cup chopped dates
1 cup chopped nut meats
1 cup sour milk
1 teaspoon soda

Line a 9x12-inch pan with waxed paper. Sift together dry ingredients, add brown sugar. Cut lard into mixture until crumb resembles corn meal. Take out 1/2 cup of this mixture for topping. Add dates and nut meats. Dissolve soda in sour milk and add to cake mixture. Mix well. Spread in baking pan. Sprinkle topping on cake. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 35 to 40 minutes.

Thirty-First

Before very long—it will be strawberry time and if you can't wait—try using some frozen strawberries with this recipe.

Strawberry Shortcake
2 cups sifted enriched flour
1 tablespoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon grated orange rind
4 to 6 tablespoons lard
1/2 to 1 cup milk

Melted butter or margarine
Strawberries, sweetened to taste
Whipped cream, if desired
Sift together flour, baking powder, salt, nutmeg, and sugar. Add orange rind. Cut in lard until mixture has the crumb of small peas.

Add enough milk to make soft dough. Turn onto a lightly-floured board and knead gently for 1 minute. Pat or roll 1/2-inch thick and cut with a cookie cutter, dipped in flour. Brush tops with melted butter or margarine and place one on top of the other. Place on baking sheet and bake in a hot oven (450 degrees F.) for 12 to 15 minutes. Separate and fill with strawberries. Replace tops and spoon additional strawberries over shortcake. Garnish with whipped cream, if desired. Yield: 6 servings.

Don't believe I can wait for strawberry time, I'll use some frozen strawberries and make strawberry short cake today.
—Bye Now.

NATIONAL OUTLOOK

Progress of the Recovery
By Ralph Robey

From some of the current comments one might conclude that the recovery is grinding to a halt. This is far from the truth. Recovery not only is continuing, but is becoming broader and more sound. Some recent evidence of this includes:

Gross national product, the value of all goods and services produced in the nation, advanced in the first quarter by an estimated $11 billion. To an annual rate of $144 billion. These are current dollars but during this period the price level was virtually stable, which means that actual production increased by the indicated amount. This carries the total to a new high, as did the fourth quarter figure. The total now is some $37 billion above the recession low in the first quarter of last year.

Industrial production, as measured by the index of the Federal Reserve Board, rose in January, February, and March. In February, which lifted it to 44 percent above the average of 1957-49. The production high was only 6 percent above 1957-49, as the recovery in production has almost reached the previous peak. The February advance, too, was general, with durable goods showing a rise pretty well across the board. Non-durables continued their advance of earlier months. Outstanding in the rise was steel production. Buying in that field has been exceptionally heavy because of the fear of a strike on July 1. It is anticipated that in the third quarter steel production necessarily will decline, but in the fourth quarter it should rise again.

Personal income in February made another new high. It was $11 billion above January. The largest increase was in payrolls, which advanced $760 million. Transfer payments rose by $500 million as a result of the increased payments under social security. Agricultural income declined further and now is at an annual rate of one half billion below last December.
Hourly earnings of factory production workers remained unchanged for the third consecutive month. The average hourly wage was $87.16 and for every major industry group this was above the figure for a year earlier. In primary metals and rubber products the increase was that much above February 1958. Both of these industries have shown a sharp increase in hours of work and both have given substantial wage increases.

Retail trade remains on the upgrade, and is running appreciably above a year ago. It still is too early to draw final conclusions as to how large an automobile year this will be, but recently sales have shown an encouraging increase. Officially the industry is still staying with its early forecast of a 51-million car sales this year; however, there is some question as to whether that total will be reached. The liquidation of inventories has come to a halt. In the first quarter of 1958 such liquidation was taking place at an annual rate of over $6 billion, and it continued as a drag on the economy throughout the year. With inventory accumulation, which probably already has started, there will be a lift given to business activity.

Business investment in plant and equipment, which also was a drag on the economy most of last year, turned slightly upward in the fourth quarter—the latest figures available—and is anticipated to continue to increase throughout 1959. The change is small, from a low of $2.6 billion to $3.2 billion in the second quarter, but at least it is on the upslide.

Private housing starts, at an annual rate and seasonally adjusted, declined in February to 1,320,000. This is 80,000 below the December rate, but still indicates a good housing year. Construction overall remains strong.

Prices at the consumer level, as measured by the Bureau of Labor Statistics index, remain stable. In February the index was 123.7 as compared with 123.5 for 1958 as a whole.
There are, of course, still some segments of the economy which have not recovered from the recession. Some industries still are slow and some localities still have serious problems. And unemployment is troublesome—so much so that it deserves treatment all by itself.

But taking the economy as a whole, recovery clearly is continuing and shows every sign of remaining on the upgrade for the remainder of this year.

Navy Band Will March in Armed Forces Day Parade

One of the Navy's top bands, which was originally created to accompany the "All Navy Talent Contest" winners on a 60 day tour of 50 major cities in the United States in the early part of 1957, will be one of the many marching units in the Armed Forces Day Parade in Virginia Beach on May 16.

In addition to the parade, the band will present a concert at the Virginia Beach Coast Guard Station during the afternoon commencing at 3:00 p.m.

Navy Unit Band No. 104 is attached to Commander Carrier Division Four stationed at NAS Oceana, and is under the direction of Chief Musician T. N. Adcock, USN. The unit recently returned to the Norfolk area after completing a six months Mediterranean cruise. During the cruise, the band gave public concerts in Athens, Naples, Rhodes, Greece, and Beirut, Turkey (where the music critic of "The New York Times" said "One of the noble bands of the U.S. Navy").

The band opened the 22nd Levant International Trade Fair in Beirut, where they played before the Italian Premier upon his arrival. This was followed by a jazz concert in front of the U.S. Pavilion.
The 17 members which compose the band, were hand picked from a group of 500 musicians at the US Navy School of Music and each man is a graduate of the school.

"SERVING VIRGINIA'S FASTEST GROWING COUNTY"

GIANT PARADE SATURDAY WILL FEATURE ARMED FORCES DAY

Thomas N. Downing to Serve as Marshall; 62 Units Listed in Show

Plans for the largest Armed Forces Day program ever to be held in the Virginia Beach area was announced today by Captain E. G. Konrad, Commanding Officer of NAS Oceana.

Throughout the week various events will take place the Captain related.

A special open house is scheduled for school children from the area on Friday, May 15, and the weeks events will be highlighted with a parade down Atlantic Avenue and an amphibious assault on Virginia Beach after which an Open House will be held at Oceana.

Captain Konrad stated that it is through the combined efforts of military installations in the area and the City of Virginia Beach that such a large scale program can be presented.

PLANNED EVENTS

First event of the week will be a Businessmen's luncheon on Wednesday, May 13, at NAS Oceana. Business and newspapermen from the Virginia Beach area have been invited to attend. Speakers at the luncheon will be Capt. Ronald L. Baker, Commanding Officer of Fort Story; Capt. Arthur C. Cunningham, Commanding Officer of the Guided Missile School at Dam Neck; Captain L. E. Hubbell, Commanding Officer, Fleet Air Defense Training Center, Dam Neck; and Lieutenant Commander, A. B. Howe, Commanding Officer of the Coast Guard Bouy Tender, Jonquil. Topic for the speakers will be on their installation and its relation to the National Defense Pattern.

School children from Princess Anne County and the Virginia Beach area will also have their day at Oceana. On Friday, May 15, they will be guests where they will witness special static displays, exhibits and flight operations on the field.

PARADE ON ATLANTIC
Saturday, May 16, in which the Armed Forces Day celebration coincides with the official opening of the Virginia Beach tourist season, a day-long schedule of events will take place.

At 10 a.m., a one and one-half hour parade will commence at 9th and Atlantic and proceed to 31st and Atlantic with more than 60 civilian and military units participating. Some of the features of the parade will include missiles, guns, floats, bands, military and civilian marching units, aircraft models, fire engines and aircraft crash and rescue equipment.

The Virginia Beach Chamber of Commerce will award trophies for the best two floats in the parade. GRAND MARSHALL
Congressman Tom Downing will be Grand Marshall for the parade. His two assistants will be Mr. Sidney Kellam and Adm. R. O. Davis, USN, (retired).

Upon completion of the parade all activities will cease in order for the people to eat lunch, either picnic style on the beach, or visit one of the many fine restaurants in the area.

AMPHIBIOUS ASSAULT
At 1 p.m. the destroyer USS Greene DD 711, will commence the afternoon events when she starts firing blank ammunition broadside shots towards the beach. This will be followed by an assault on the beach by Navy Frogmen from Underwater Demolition Team Twenty-One from Little Creek. The Frogmen will swim to the beach, blow up simulated obstacles placed there earlier in the day, swim back out to sea and be picked up by a speeding boat.

After the Frogmen have cleared the beach, the USS Greene will then bombard the beach, in earnest, with blank ammunition, just as they would in a real landing.

A Marine landing party, which will be brought ashore by a Landing Craft Personnel boat, will demonstrate flame throwers and many other modern weapons used in an amphibious type landing.

Next on the agenda will be the landing of the largest amphibious vehicles used by the Armed Forces today. Army troops from Fort Story will bring the BARK's ashore and demonstrate some of their capabilities before the spectators. These vehicles when loaded, weigh over 100 tons.

Perhaps the largest visitor to Virginia Beach will be the USS Waldo County, a Landing Ship Transport (LST). She will make her landing in front of the Coast Guard Station and offshore barges and troops from Fort Story.

Crew members of the Waldo County claim that they have made many landings the world over, but it is the first time for them to attempt to land in a resort city. After the landing, the ship will pull herself back out to sea through the use of anchors.

OPEN HOUSE AT OCEANA
The Navy's largest Master Jet Base on the East Coast, NAS Oceana, will stage an Open House upon completion of beach activities. The general public is cordially invited to see static displays provided by Fort Story, Dam Neck and NAS Oceana. Some of the exhibits will include Army DUKW's, the Navy Regulus Missile, 20MM guns, jet engines, and the latest Navy jet aircraft.

The base will be open from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m., and the taking of photographs will be permitted in authorized areas.

Parade Marshal

Rep. Thomas N. Downing, who will serve as parade marshal in the giant parade here Saturday honoring the Armed Forces Day, observance of Armed Forces Day.

To Land at Virginia Beach

Perhaps the largest visitor at Virginia Beach on Armed Forces Day Saturday will be the USS Waldo County, a Landing Ship Transport (LST). The LST will land at the Coast Guard Station, off-load troops and vehicles and then drag herself back to sea through the use of sea anchors. (Official U.S. Navy Photo)

Clark Resigns Election Post On City Board

Wallace T. Clark, secretary of the Virginia Beach Electoral Board since 1952, has resigned that position to take an active part in the forthcoming primary election. Clark stated that he will actively support and work for the election of the Organization candidates in the July 14 primary.

Clark's resignation was sent to Judge Henry W. McKenzie, Jr., judge of the Circuit Court. Clark was appointed secretary of the Electoral Board by the late Judge Floyd E. Kellam in 1952.

Clark's announcement of his resignation follows in full: "I am delighted to know that the temporary injunction sought by William F. Hudgins has no standing in court. This move on the part of a desperate candidate is typical of Mr. Hudgins."

"I have been secretary of the City Electoral Board since Virginia Beach became a city in 1952. Having been appointed by the late Hon. Floyd E. Kellam, I have expressed to my fellow citizens a desire to be relieved of those duties. I know well all the organization candidates, their abilities and qualifications, and I desire to actively participate in and support them in their election in the forthcoming primary."

"This underhanded move by Mr. Hudgins makes me more determined than ever to actively support them in this Democratic primary."

"For this reason, and in order that the election officials will not become involved, I have submitted my resignation as a member of the Electoral Board of the City of Virginia Beach. This resignation, in light of the court's decision in my favor, and in rejecting the injunction sought by Mr. Hudgins, clearly indicates that this type of remedy sought in court had no standing whatsoever."

'Confederacy' in Story Book Form

Paul Green's symphonic outdoor drama, "The Confederacy," was published in play form this week by Samuel French Play Company. The dedication is to Sidney S. Kellam and Henry Clay Hofheimer, II, co-chairmen of the Tidewater Historic Drama Association. Kellam was cited for his contribution to the drama when he received the first citizen award for Virginia Beach in 1958. Hofheimer received the comparable award for Norfolk this year, for his work on the drama among other things. According to John Cudde, general manager of The Confederacy, books will be on sale for $1.50 at the Robert E. Lee Amphitheatre beginning June 22nd, opening date of the drama.

This will mark the 22nd play by Paul Green to be published in book form. Green has had some twelve other books, novels, essays and songbooks published.

"The Confederacy" play book includes pictures from the production along with complete dialogue and songs.

PANCAKE DAY AT CENTER ON MAY 15

The Virginia Beach Methodist Church will sponsor a "Pancake Day" at the Convention Center on May 15. Pancakes will be served from 4:30 p.m. until 8 p.m. C. B. P.A. Memorial Hospital Commission May Announce Site After Committee Reports

Several Locations Have Been Investigated by Special Site Group; Hospital Dream a Step Nearer to Reality as Committees Function

The establishment of a Princess Anne County Memorial Hospital would seem to be a step nearer today with the announcement that the Hospital Commission's site committee has under consideration several suitable sites in the county that would measure up to the requirements for such an undertaking.

The announcement was released by Richard J. Webbon, secretary to the Hospital Commission, who stated that the site committee had been at work continuously and now had several sites under consideration that would fit into plans for a modern, well equipped and expertly staffed hospital.

Several sites have been visited by the site committee, according to Webbon, and the group has studied each possible location in order that they may recommend the one that will best serve the residents of the area. It was pointed out.

Webbon indicated that he had made inquiries as to the availability of funds under the Hill-Gurton Act and that he has visited several hospitals in studying the matter of establishing a Princess Anne County Memorial Hospital.

Webbon stated that he had held many conferences with persons who have recently constructed hospitals under similar circumstances as those found in the Princess Anne-Virginia Beach area.

The Hospital Commission, appointed by the Princess Anne County Board of Supervisors and the City of Virginia Beach, is composed of Dr. Ira L. Hancock, chairman; A. L. Boone, Walter Maher, Frank Kellam, Sr., Mrs. Ails Griffin, Samuel G. Jones, Jr., Frank D. Haral, Jr., John Angiano, and Webbon as secretary.

The site committee, which was appointed some time ago by Dr. Hancock, is expected to make a report to the full committee in the very near future.

The Hospital Commission has had offers of support from many organizations and individuals. Committees are expected to be named soon for solicitation of funds necessary to the erection of the hospital. Many civic and fraternal organizations have indicated a willingness of their respective clubs to sponsor one or two rooms in the hospital.

Frank D. Tarrall, Jr., is treasurer of the hospital which is chartered in the name of The Princess Anne County Memorial Hospital, Incorporated. Tarrall has already received many donations to the hospital and it was announced that anyone wishing to donate should direct such donations to Tarrall or to the Princess Anne County Memorial Hospital, Virginia Beach, Virginia. Checks should be made out in the name of the hospital, it was pointed out.

The girls were divided into groups each having a special name and a leader for each activity. The different groups sang songs, did knots, demonstrated games, built fires, gave dramatic acts, and carried on first aid in competition with one another. Girl Scout leaders of the area acted as judges giving each group points according to how well they performed the activities.

Time was taken out to eat a nose-bag lunch and to inspect the beautiful grounds of Metoka. The trip was made possible for Troop 232 by their leader, Mrs. John Tucker.

Memorial Hospital a Step Nearer

The announcement this week that the site committee of the Princess Anne County Memorial Hospital Commission has viewed and studied several possible sites for the establishment and erection of a community hospital brings this fine project a step nearer to realization.

The work that has been going on for some time by the site committee is one of the most important phases in the final establishment of the hospital. This site location and selection is also probably the biggest time consumer of the many problems faced by the hospital commission.

Location of the Princess Anne County Memorial Hospital requires deep study by the site committee and also by the full hospital commission which is headed by Dr. Ira L. Hancock. The announcement states that the committee hopes to make its report to the commission at a very early date. It is assumed that more than one site will be included in this report.

The study made by the site committee has been made more difficult, we believe, because of the very rapid growing of this area and the constantly expanding population. All of this has to be taken into consideration in the final selection of a site for the hospital.

It requires some 125 acres for the hospital site and it is understood that several sites have been offered the hospital commission and the site committee has thoroughly investigated each of these locations.

Selection of a site for the hospital must take into account an adequate water supply, sewerage facilities plus being convenient to major highways yet far enough distant so that patients would not be disturbed by traffic and nearby airfields.

It goes without saying that the individuals serving on the hospital site committee have devoted much time and thought to their work. It is a most difficult task. They are to be congratulated and at the same time members of the full hospital commission deserve praise for what we know must be a time consuming chore. All of these individuals warrant the thanks of the citizens of this area for serving on the hospital commission. They have worked quietly and efficiently and their labors are beginning to pay off.

The Princess Anne County Memorial Hospital would appear a giant step nearer reality today, thanks to the hospital commission and many individuals and groups who have lent encouragement to this worthy community undertaking.

Opportunity for Civic Service

It was learned this week that Virginia Beach area telephone users may secure the Norfolk telephone directories from the local telephone office, but we believe that in addition to the Norfolk directory being made available that the telephone company should distribute these books to its Virginia Beach area subscribers.

We are not aware of the problems that may be faced by the telephone company in distributing these Norfolk telephone directories, and no doubt there are some, but it would be a fine service to its subscribers. The whole problem has developed since the Virginia Beach exchange numbers were not combined in the new Norfolk area directory. The public seemed to have the impression that with the integration of the two telephone exchanges all of the Virginia Beach numbers would be listed in the same directory as that of Norfolk.

It seems that if the telephone company cannot render this service of distributing the Norfolk telephone books it would be a fine opportunity for a local organization or group to sponsor such a project. We hope that the Norfolk telephone books will become a project of a local civic group or organization and that the Norfolk telephone books will be distributed in the Virginia Beach area.

It would be a very worthwhile project and a fine opportunity for a civic service.

We Salute the Armed Forces

Saturday marks the annual observance of Armed Forces Day throughout the Nation and we in this area particularly are proud to salute the men in uniform.

To us in this area Armed Forces Day has a special meaning and the Armed Forces in our area are one of our proudest assets. But, to us in Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County this asset is enhanced by the fine relationship that exists between community and military.

This grand relationship between civilian and military has not just happened. It is the result of direct and cordial cooperation between the military and the community. We are extremely proud of this relationship.

Actual observance of Armed Forces Day will take on various forms throughout the United States. In Virginia Beach it will be climaxed by a giant parade that we understand will include some 62 units.

Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County, in observing Armed Forces Day, will join with the many military installations located in our area in placing our military might on display and by so doing will place this might in a place of particular honor on Saturday.

We salute the Armed Forces on Armed Forces Day. The man in uniform receives a warm welcome in Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County. We are proud of this relationship.

Poppy Day To Be Observed Saturday

"To Show That We Remember
"Wear a poppy"

This is the appeal which will greet Virginia Beach citizens on the morning of May 16 from the American Legion Auxiliary's Poppy Day volunteers. On that day everyone will be asked to wear a poppy as a personal tribute to America's war dead.

"Wearing a poppy on Poppy Day is the way to show that we remember and are grateful to those who gave their lives in our country's defense," said Mrs. William Walker, the Auxiliary's Poppy Day chairman. "It is an individual gesture of devotion to the cause in which they died—the cause of free America."

A corps of volunteers from the Auxiliary and other girls' and women's groups has been organized by Mrs. William Walker to distribute the memorial flowers in all parts of the city on Poppy Day. These volunteer workers will receive contributions for the Auxiliary's work in behalf of disabled war veterans and needy children of veterans. The poppies have been made by disabled veterans in Washington, D.C.

Everett School Artists' Work in New York Show

A painting by one of the kindergarten children at the Everett School is part of an exhibit of 500 pictures by four- and five-year-old children now on display in New York City.

Your Eyes and Your Optometrist

This is the story of Optometry with the unending quest of American science for the means to preserve our priceless vision, the profession of optometry has become an influential part of everyday life. Research is providing new and better instruments with which to detect visual disorders. Lenses as unique as nature's own, are capable of restoring good functional vision. Modern techniques of correction, such as visual training, enable the optometrist to perform scientific wonders.

Since its birth as a distinct profession in 1898, optometry has achieved the position of leadership in the field of vision care. Only a few short years ago it was difficult to establish vision's relationship to scholastic achievement, personality adjustment, job efficiency, highway safety and physical fitness.

But in the last decade optometric research has found the answers to many of these questions, and continuing study is pouring out even greater knowledge of the important role vision occupies in our total lives.

From this newfound knowledge has come the concept of functional vision. The eye is no longer looked upon as a static optical instrument. Seeing demands vary with individuals. It is the optometrist's objective to enable us to see comfortably and efficiently for each specific task.

To accomplish this objective, optometry has pioneered in many new fields, such as contact lenses, visual training and subnormal vision aids. This has been necessary to keep pace with the complex society in which we live in many instances optometry has advanced into the realm of the future.

Dr. Stanley Salasky, Virginia Beach's pioneer optometrist, looks forward to the new challenge that will be made upon him in the field of optometry in the location of his new office at 310 31st St. in the heart of Virginia Beach's and Princess Anne County's newest shopping center.

To the Citizens of Princess Anne County and the City of Virginia Beach:

On Sunday, May 3, 1959, there was an ad carried in the Virginian-Pilot and unsigned by any individual but signed Independent Campaign Committee. We do not know whether this ad was put out by Hudgins-Malbon ticket because neither one of them signed their name to it. In this ad they asked the question "Is it good government if the wife of a public official, who is a candidate for office, is a registrar in the primary in which her husband is competing." It is true that C. Roger Malbon, who is a candidate for Sheriff on the Hudgins-Malbon ticket, did serve as Sheriff and ran for election while his father was the secretary of the County Electoral Board (which Board appointed all registrars). It is true that this same Malbon had two of his deputies serving as registrars, which registrars were appointed by Malbon's father and which same registrars are now candidates with Malbon on the so called Hudgins-Malbon ticket. It is true that William F. Hudgins, who was Clerk of the Court and who was defeated when he sought re-election to this office, did have his deputy serving as registrar contrary to law. If Mr. Malbon wants to criticize his own father (so far as we are concerned, he is an honorable gentleman) and his deputies, that is his privilege. If Mr. Hudgins wants to criticize his own deputy, that is his privilege. If these candidates will condemn their own fathers and deputies, it is quite natural to expect them to level innuendos, half truths and mud slinging statements at us, who are candidates seeking re-election in the primary of July 14th.

Not in the time of any elected public official now serving Princess Anne County has the County had to pay anything like 5 1/2% for long term or short term bonds. If they had to do it while Mr. Hudgins or Mr. Malbon were in office and they want to criticize themselves, that is their privilege.

We remind Mr. Hudgins and Mr. Malbon that there are still unanswered questions in previous campaigns which they should tell the public about. When they have given the citizens of the County and the City a complete record of their past performances, they will be in a much better position to ask questions of others.

Coveted Award Presented to Lt. J. H. Newton

During ceremonies May 8 at the Naval Air Station Oceana, Lt. (j.g.) James H. Newton, U. S. Naval Reserve of Attack Squadron Eighty-five, was presented the coveted Silas C. Hart Jr., Memorial Award by Capt. B. M. Streen, USN, Chief of Staff, Commander Naval Air Force, U. S. Atlantic Fleet.

The award, an engraved plaque and handsome wristwatch, is presented annually to the flight training graduate who demonstrated the highest degree of proficiency in instrument flying, while undergoing basic and advanced flight training in the Naval Air Training Command.

Newton completed flight training at NAAS Cabaniss Field at Corpus Christi, Texas in February 1958, reporting later to VA-85. As Assistant Operations Officer of the squadron he flies the Douglas AD-6 "Skyraider," a carrier based attack bomber capable of both conventional and atomic attacks.

Lieutenant Newton previously received the Texas Society of the Aviation Award for 1958 as the most outstanding student Naval Aviator who flew propeller driven aircraft in the advanced phase of flight training.

A 1955 graduate of Georgia Tech with an electrical engineering degree, Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Newton of 932 Valley Road Place, Birmingham, Ala. Prior to entering the military service he was employed by the General Electric Company of Atlanta, Ga.

Attack Squadron 85 is attached to Carrier Air Group Eight and is scheduled to operate off the super carrier USS Forrestal this summer.

Obscene Literature in Mails Object of Drive by Postal Officials

(Ed. Note: This is the second of two articles on the growing threat of obscene mail and what can be done about it. This article explains how the American public can drive the dealers in obscenity out of business.)

The American public, if it wants to, can destroy the half billion dollar a year mail-order business in obscenity which is having such disastrous effects on teen-age youngsters. Postmaster Merrel M. Nash Jr., Bayside, Va., stated today.

The judgment as to what is obscene is actually in the hands of the citizens of Bayside, Va., and other communities throughout the nation, the Postmaster emphasized; and the first judge in these matters is the conscience of these awakened communities.

"We can clean up the mails in Bayside if enough citizens become aware of the seriousness of this problem and use their influence to do so," Postmaster Nash said. "We must do so to protect our homes, curb juvenile delinquency, and prevent the poisoning of the minds of our children."

All the average citizen needs do is his home is invaded by unordered and unwanted mail soliciting the sale of filthy, lewd and lascivious films, slides, pictures or other obscene and pornographic material is to complain to the Post Office Department. This is done by mailing the objectionable material itself, and the envelope, it came in, with a signed note of protest to the local Postmaster.

An investigation is then made by the Post Office Department's Inspection Service. If their findings justify action to ban the material from the mails, the Department's General Counsel then issues such an order. If the sender of the obscene literature protests the Department's ruling, the matter may then be taken to the nearest United States District Court for decision.

When the material in question is clearly pornographic, criminal action is usually taken by the local prosecu- authorities with the cooperation of the Post Office Department. Convictions in such cases provide for both jail and dollar fines for the dealers in obscenity.

Testimony given recently in Washington by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield before the Subcommittee of the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee indicates that no longer do dealers in smut and dirty pictures serve only a few adults. Instead, they are increasingly soliciting youngsters, sending their unwanted and unordered material indiscriminately and without conscience, into the homes of the nation.

Postmaster Nash emphasized that the Post Office Department is intensifying its efforts to clean up the mails. Its chief opposition in doing so comes from those who reap huge profits from unrestricted mailings, and from some misguided individuals who confuse liberty with license, and in so doing, unwittingly give aid to these dealers in obscenity.

Congressman Kathryn E. Granahan, Chairman of the House Post Office and Civil Service Subcommittee on Obscene Literature, aptly summed up this apparent confusion in the minds of some recently by stating, "There are those who express concern about their constitutional right of free speech and free press, I would like to point out this connection that there are many situations where a certain freedom might apply to adults but will not apply to children. For example, the selling of alcoholic beverages to minors is prohibited; children under a certain age are not permitted to drive an automobile; and they are not admitted to see certain movies if they are minors. However, experience clearly demonstrates that the wholesale circulation and uncontrolled dissemination of obscene material always brings a good deal of it into the hands of children and teenage youth."

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield, in discussing the scope of this social menace, has publicly stated that, "It is my deep conviction — frequently expressed to individual members of this Congressional Committee, religious and educational leaders, newspaper editors, and citizen groups that one of the most serious moral and social problems in the United States today is the multimillion dollar mail order traffic in obscenity.

"In spite of the frustrations and the legal complications, and even the court decisions, I feel a responsibility to the public to attempt to prevent the use of the mails for indecent material, and to seek indictments and prosecutions for such offenses, even though it may be argued that it falls in the category of material concerning which there have been previous rulings favorable to the promoters. It seems to me that only by this method can the dimensions of this problem become clearly established before the courts and the Congress and the American public."

Local Policemen Attend Aviation Rescue Lecture

Fighter Squadron Twenty-one, based at the Naval Air Station, Oceana, recently invited Princess Anne and Norfolk City Police to attend a lecture on "Safety Precautions for Aviation Rescue."

The lecture and demonstration was given first to Princess Anne County Police and several days later to Norfolk City Police.

The basic idea behind the lectures is to acquaint local police officials with the hazards involved and proper technique in approaching and rescuing a trapped pilot from a downed aircraft.

The policemen were first given a classroom lecture on safety precautions, pointing out the location of potential hazards to spectators or persons attempting rescue, such as election seats, canopy jetison charges and other explosive items.

The policemen were then taken out to the actual aircraft and given detailed check-outs on the different types of jet airplanes the squadron handles. The types discussed were the TV-2 jet trainer, the F9F-7 "Grumman Cougar," the A4D "Douglas Skyhawk," and the F11F-1 "Grumman Tiger."

The police were later taken to Air Development Squadron Three (VX-3) and given check-outs in the F4D "Skyray" and the F8U "Crusader."

POST BIDS FAREWELL

The members of this command lined the streets of the post as Col. George E. Woods, Jr., departing post commander, left for New Orleans today.

Col. Woods has been post commander here since July, 1954. After leaving his quarters, Col. Woods was met by Col. A. L. Baker who will assume command and Lt. Col. Seaborn H. Mosely, Chief of Staff. They drove in a jeep and were followed by a convertible carrying the family.

As they drove onto Atlantic Avenue, they went through streets lined with the soldiers who all presented arms as the procession passed.

Over the gate leaving the post was a large banner saying "Farewell, Col. Woods."

Col. Woods then proceeded to Portsmouth where he will be Director of Services for the Gulf Transportation Terminal Command.

The farewell ceremonies culminated two days of activities for Col. Woods in which he was honored by the officers and Non-Commissioned officers of the post. Among the things given to him was a hum of his four years here and a portrait of himself painted by the wife of the Protestant Chaplain here, Capt. Joseph Killinger.

Singing Bee To Be Held Friday by Elementary Schools

On Friday, May 15, at 10:30 a.m., the auditorium of the Princess Anne High School will resound with approximately six hundred Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth grade voices singing together in the first Elementary Singing Bee ever to be staged in the Princess Anne-Virginia Beach Schools.

The Singing Bee was developed by the Princess Anne Division Music Teachers, and Miss Patricia Powell of Thalia and Aragona Schools, is coordinating chairman for this event. Mrs. Irene A. Korte, Oceana School and Mr. William Boyll, Larrymore Lawns School, complete the committee.

All county schools will participate in this morning event which is designed as a culmination of the year's work for the chorus groups, as well as an opportunity to sing with a large group and a different director, and thus expand their musical horizons beyond the confines of their own schools. Mr. Clark Graves, vocal music director of Princess Anne High School, will be the guest conductor, and Mrs. Korte will accompany.

As a special feature, the Princess Anne High School A cappella Choir, directed by Mr. Graves, will be heard. All other music will be performed by the combined chorus of assembled students. The morning will consist of a rehearsal period, and then the performance. The Sixth and Seventh grade choruses will sing, "Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones," "A Sea Song" and "Country Style." The Eighth grade chorus will sing, "It's A Grand Night For Singing," "Brother James' Air," and "Comin' Through The Rye." The entire assembly will be heard in two selections, a round, "Rise Up, O Flame," and the patriotic number, "American, Our Heritage."

The public is invited to attend.

Went with the parlor maid...

Even in Vercos' early days, very few families could afford a parlor maid. But her symbol of office, the feather duster, flourished in every home. And the unfortunate lady who did the flourishing could expect an irritated sinus.

Everybody's been a lot happier since electricity took over the dusting. For electricity has brought, not only a parlor maid, but a full staff of servants within reach of all.

For a fraction of a cent, electricity vacuum cleans the living room, more thoroughly and healthily than any feather duster. For 2c, electricity cooks your dinner... then does the dishes, far cleaner than you could by hand, for less than a penny.

Electricity is your number one homemaking bargain. And to keep it that way, Vercos' planning and research never sleep. For example, Vercos and three other private power companies are now building a working atomic generating station to see what this new energy can do to save you money.

For in a world of rising costs, Vercos is determined to keep thrifty kilowatts coming your way. Low cost power... your power to work better and LIVE BETTER... ELECTRICALLY!

Mushroom-Oatmeal Meat Loaf

New Variation Of Favorite Entree

Mushroom Meat Loaf made with rolled oats, is a new variation of the ever-favorite meat loaf. Rolled oats, in addition to improving flavor and texture, add protein, valuable B-complex vitamins, minerals, and food energy at low cost.

This recipe is so easy to prepare. The rolled oats are ready to use as they come from the box—no additional preparation is required. The mushroom flavor is added by the use of condensed cream of mushroom soup.

It is a good idea to increase this meat loaf recipe by one-half to have some meat loaf left over for future use. To prepare a quick main dish for a hot supper, slice the meat loaf into 1/2-inch thick slices and broil or pan fry until heated through and lightly browned.

Meat loaf sandwiches are so easy to make with a supply on hand in the freezer. Wrap individual slices of meat loaf in saran and freeze. This pre-sliced meat loaf is ready for sandwiches with no additional fuss—a help to the busy homemaker with lunches to pack in the morning.

Mushroom-Oatmeal Meat Loaf

- 2 eggs, beaten
- 1 cup rolled oats, uncooked
- 1 1/2 pounds ground beef
- 1/4 cup chopped onion
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1/2 cup water or milk
- 1/2 can condensed cream of mushroom soup

Mix all ingredients together thoroughly. Pack into greased 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 1 hour. Let stand 5 minutes. Drain off excess juices and turn meat loaf onto serving plate. Serve with mushroom sauce and garnish, if desired, with heated canned mushroom slices. Yield: 8 servings.

Note: To prepare mushroom sauce, thin remaining 1/2 can of soup with milk as desired, and heat.

The Bay Colony Garden Club held its May meeting in the lovely garden of Mrs. W. L. Gilliam, Jr. on York Lane. Plants were exchanged and each member received a crepe myrtle tree.

Mrs. A. A. Watty of the Virginia Agricultural Experimental Station spoke on "grasses." She stated that this is a favorable climate and soil for growing plants and grasses, although the soil should be tested to determine the amount of fertilizer necessary for best results. "Keep out weeds," he cautioned. Pine needles or saw dust was recommended for mulching.

Chairman of the nominating committee, Mrs. A. T. Moore, presented a proposed slate of officers to the club and the following were elected:

Mrs. R. E. Folk, Jr., president; Mrs. W. L. Gilliam, Jr., 1st vice-president; Mrs. D. E. Hood, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. W. W. Vail, recording secretary; Mrs. R. A. Fullerton, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. C. Overman, treasurer; Mrs. T. F. James, Mrs. A. T. Moore and Mrs. C. B. Forrest, directors.

Mrs. A. T. Moore won the blue ribbon; Mrs. L. B. Burton was awarded the red ribbon while Mrs. Fred A. Haycox, Jr. and Mrs. Paul deWitt were winners of yellow ribbon.

The club voted to donate a $25.00 bond to the Council of Garden Clubs beautification fund for the Robert E. Lee Amphitheatre.

The Oceana Civic League will hold its regular monthly meeting May 18 at 8:30 p.m. in the Oceana Elementary School. The program chairman has arranged for a guest speaker.

PERSEPHONE PARTRIDGE takes a tip...

Poor Persephone never got a moment's rest. "I don't know what to do," she told Mrs. Setter. "The chicks keep me on the nest all day, and I don't want to give up the PTA or the Heps' Club."

"Why not put your phone to work for you, honey?" asked Mrs. Setter. "Why fly around, trying to get everything done, when it's easier, faster and cheaper to do it by phone?"

"That's a good point," said Persephone. "Thanks," said Mrs. Setter, who thought her point was pretty special. "Oh, you mean about the phone. Yes, I got that from S O B P ad."

So now Persephone has time to relax, and she still gets just as much done—by phone. Says she happily, "It saves me time, it saves me money, and it saves wear and tear on the plumage."

News and Views of Aragona Village

By ELLEN HARTY

ARAGONA VILLAGE RECREATION CENTER

Mr. Larry Marshall, member of the board of trustees of the Aragona Village Recreation Center, stated that legal papers pertaining to application for corporate charter were forwarded some time ago to the State Corporation Commission at Richmond, and it is expected that the charter will be issued and in the hands of the board within a very few days. Mr. Marshall further stated that promptly after issuance of the charter the board will take under consideration extensive plans for raising funds for construction of the recreation building and playground. It is hoped that those in the Village who have so steadfastly worked toward completing this project will continue to help carry the project through to fulfillment which will prove beneficial to the children's activities, as well as civic and recreational activities of the adults.

ARAGONA CIVIC LEAGUE

Election of new officers of the Aragona Civic League will be held at its regular meeting Thursday night, May 14. The nominating committee will propose an outstanding list of nominees for election as officers for the ensuing year. The Civic League was organized some three years ago by its first president, Mr. R. Wilson, and with the help of many civic minded residents of the Village, has been primarily responsible for many improvements in the community such as installation of street lights, garbage collection, stop signs and traffic lights, and its many members have participated in the organization of youth organizations, scout troops, boy scouts, and garden clubs. Residents of the Village are urged to attend this meeting as these are items of the agenda which will prove interesting to all residents and homeowners in the area.

Mr. John Ammen, Chairman of the Lighting Committee, reported that the County Officials have approved the locations for the street lights, as recommended by the Electric Company. Arrangements for the financing of these street lights for the North Side of Aragona Village have not yet been completed but a report of the subject will be made at the next meeting of the Civic League.

REGISTERED VOTERS INCREASING

It has been estimated that the number of registered voters living in the Aragona Village community has more than doubled within the past few months and the number of individuals living in the Village closely rivals if not exceeds that of Virginia Beach. Therefore, it is important that the voters get to the polls. Anyone desiring transportation to the polls on election day may contact any officer of the Civic League and transportation will be arranged.

BUS SERVICE BY MAY 15

Mr. T. Tarkington, Manager of the Virginia Beach Trailway Bus Terminal stated that bus service through the Aragona Village community will be started on or about May 15. However, he stated that though his Company has no assurance from the State authorities that it would be permitted to continue to operate the bus schedule through the Village in the event of annexation by the City of Norfolk, his Company will start the service this month. This service has been delayed awaiting issuance of necessary permits for its operation. Schedules will be somewhat limited but it is hoped that adequate service will be maintained for the benefit of the residents.

AWARDS GO TO KEMPSPVILLE-BAYSIDE CLUB

The Kempsville-Bayside Community 4-H Club Thursday night received the trophy and plaque as Princess Anne County's champion senior 4-H group for 1958-59.

The awards were presented at Achievement Day exercises in Shelton Park School. The club's adult leader is Mrs. Louise Lee, whose clubs have emerged tops in previous contests.

The Shelton Park Junior Club of which Miss Allyne Padgett, a Shelton Park teacher, is leader, won the honors in the younger division.

These clubs are chosen on the basis of points earned during the year according to a schedule set up by the County 4-H Council, L. Barnes Alban, assistant agricultural agent, explains.

Individual Honors
The H. W. Ozzin trophies, top individual honors awarded annually, went to Betty Ann Lee and Eddy Vaughan in the senior girls and boys divisions and to Louise McComber and George Lee in the junior divisions.

Mrs. Dale Beasley, county welfare superintendent and chairman of the selection committee, presented the trophies. The other committee members were Aubrey N. Holmes, county Soil Conservation Service and R. H. Owen, assistant superintendent of schools. Selection was based on achievements for the past and previous years.

Allen said the county has 19 4-H clubs with 638 members with competition kept in all divisions with four to 100 competitors in each.

To win the Ozzin Trophy, Miss Lee was first in the county in five activities—garden, dress revue, home grounds beautification, sewing, and ironing—and second in food freezing and room improvement. Her gardening was rated first in the Southeast District at Petersburg and her dress making rated third.

Eddy Vaughan ranked first in the Southeastern District in field crops and was a member of the Princess Anne team that won first district place in land judging at Petersburg, April 23, in both activities he is eligible for competition at the 4-H Short Course at Blackburg June 22-27.

George Lee was the first and only winner in entomology. He was first in home grounds beautification and food preparation demonstration, and was second in garden.

Other county winners who went on to district first prizes at Petersburg were Bobby Vaughan in field crops and Bruce Clark in public speaking.

Part of the Achievement Program was provided by the public speaking and talent winners. Bruce Clark, Ginger Oliver, Susan Walker and Donnie Lee were speakers, and Toomy Chism was senior talent winner. Other winners were: Ruth Ann Oliver, dramatics; Ellen Greenberg, instrumental; Johnny Joyce, vocal, and Linda Lang, Betty Shelby, Georgia Sutton, Gail Varret, Karen Klingling, and Gail O'Dea, dance.

Ruth Ann Oliver, a junior group competitor, won six first places, including her first place in dramatics, and two second places—first in food preparations, freezing, canning, money management, and bread demonstration, and second in room improvements, and laundry. She was fourth in club secretary record book.

Others besides Eddy Vaughan in Princess Anne's district champion land judging team were Jimmy Bright, Gene Smith and Tommy Chism.

The County's top livestock judging team, which came out second in the district competition at courtland Wednesday, includes Eddie May, Wayne Flora, Bobby Barnes, and Bobby Vaughan.

Toomy Chism also won county first in meat animal production with his Princess Anne animal in the Portsmouth show and a good swine record.

Jim Bob Porter, whose heifer won third place in her class at the Atlantic Rural Exposition last fall, was ranked first in dairying.

Other first place winners included: Bruce Clark, farm and home electrical work (besides public speaking); Marlene Blackwell, best secretary record book, also first in home improvement; Brenda Stanford, safety; Donna Elaine Saunders, introduction dairying; Wayne Ray, forestry; Ginger Oliver, senior room improvement and laundry; Lynn Oliver, junior room improvement; Mary Bungard, clothing; Ann Connell, junior dress revue and sewing; Carolyn Stoneyphet, housekeeping; Geraldine Lipton, personal grooming; and Sharon Braun junior ironing.

ARMY WORMS HERE

The first Army Worm infestation was found a week ago in a field of oats near Oceana. The worms were very small in fact just hatched when they were found.

You can expect Army worms to grow in size and infestation. Therefore, constant observations of your small grain and pastures is absolutely necessary.

Army worms can do considerable damage in small grain and control measures must be applied. For small grain after it has headed, U.S.D.A. shows you to spray once with 11 pounds of toxaphene per acre. This must be done as much as 7 days before harvest in wheat, oats and rye. With barley 14 days must elapse between time of application and harvest.

On pastures we can use the same material for effective control, however, we do run into complications with the Food and Drug Act in that we can not graze this pasture that has been treated with toxaphene with dairy cattle. The best thing to do in a situation like this is to find the sources of the army worms that may be coming onto the pasture and try to spray that area and then keep it off so that the cattle can not get on it. Many times this is not exactly possible so probably the next best thing to do is to spray a border, a boundary around the pasture. This way you can keep the army worms from coming onto our pastures and keep it clean for dairy cattle grazing. Now this same thing will probably be advisable for beef cattle pastures.

SOIL STEWARDSHIP WEEK TO BE OBSERVED IN STATE
Soil Stewardship Week, sponsored throughout the nation, is being observed in Virginia this week, May 8-10.

In calling attention to the observance, R. G. Preston, Meadowview, president of the Virginia Association of Soil Conservation Districts, says: "We hope our churches and soil conservation districts will help spread the knowledge of good soil conserving practices, and that farmers will stress wise soil care and redouble their efforts to instill in every man a greater awareness of his obligation as a good steward of the soil."

"Man as the steward of the earth is responsible for its use or misuse. Conservation of our natural resources is big business and it is everyone's business, for our religious, financial, and social welfare is related to the proper use of our soil and water."

GARDENING REASON IN FULL SWING
The gardening season really gets into full swing in May.

VPI horticulturists say additional plantings of sweet corn, snap beans, carrots, and radishes can be made; and you can begin planting warm-weather vegetables—lima beans, cucumbers, melons, squash, peppers, tomatoes, egg plant, ogra, and black-eyed peas.

Be sure to plant at the proper depth and distance apart. Consult VPI Circular 639, "Vegetable Gardening in Virginia," available from my office.

The horticulturists recommend sawdust as a mulch for home gardens. It can be used in two ways. You can spread a band of sawdust 4 inches wide and 1 inch thick over the row after planting and covering the seed in the usual way. This mulch helps reduce crusting and allows the young seedlings to emerge easily. The other way is to apply a 1-inch layer over the entire area after the vegetables are about 2 inches high. Fill out the seeds that come through the sawdust, but do not cultivate or mix the sawdust into the soil.

It is important to control insects and diseases. Another helpful publication for the farmer is VPI Circular 639, "Control of Garden Insects and Diseases."

A sidedress of nitrogen in May will increase yield and quality of these vegetables. Use 1 to 2 pounds of a quickly available nitrogen fertilizer per 100 feet of row. Do not apply additional nitrogen to beans.

Where manure is not used, frequent shallow cultivations are best for control of weeds and conserving moisture. Weeds that get a start, are harder to pull than deep cultivation of the roots of vegetables.

RECORDS SHOWN IN DAIRYING PAY IN INCREASED PROFITS
Production testing of dairy cows has increased rapidly since a Danish immigrant in 1905 called together some Michigan dairy farmers to organize the first dairy herd improvement association in the United States.

W. S. Griffith, dairy specialist at VPI, says that at the end of 1958 there were 55,583 cows enrolled in the first program. A summary of records of the first year of testing in 1956 showed that 239 cows enrolled averaged 5,300 pounds of milk and 214 pounds of butterfat.

Virginia ranks 7th in the number of dairy cows in DHIA. California is first with 252,707 cows followed by New York, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Illinois.

There are good reasons for the DHIA program to have attracted such widespread interest, Griffith says. Every herd, good or poor, has a bottom cow. In most herds this bottom cow does not pay for its keep. Complete production records tell exactly what each cow is doing, and point to the cows which should be culled. Guessing is expensive! Cows should be culled intelligently by use of records.

By knowing how much and but-terfat each cow produces, the dairyman can better decide how

Dorris School of Music to Present Final Concert

The Dorris School of Music will present its final concert May 24 at 2 p.m. at the Convention Center. The public is invited. A reading will be presented by Bunny Sevier. The following pupils will participate:

Larry Turner Jr., Susan Baker, Jimmy Mathias, Tommy Mathias, Barbara Brown, Grace Sawyer, Laura Moore, Diane Kelly, Ricky Bloomfield, John Judge Jr., Pam Miller, Barton Miller, Mildred Hewitt, Anne Corbett, Raymond Kelly, Wilson Cherry, Linda Rehnbach, Iris Sofies, Paula Corbett, Martha Newbern, Nancy Powers, Murlah Ingram, Jeri Mahone, Jane Edmondson, Carla Rehnbach, Judy Hudson, April Wheeler, Jerry Callender, Judy Blum, Janet Twford, and Sandra Smith.

much grain each cow should receive. A grain feeding chart, made by the DHIA supervisor, saves a dairyman more money than the testing costs. Some dairymen have reported that the savings made possible by using the feed chart will more than justify the cost of testing. Saving 1 pound of grain per day on a cow will mean savings of more than $10 per year.

Records will help a dairyman determine which calves should be kept in the herd. If heifers are kept from the poorer cows, the producing ability of the herd will not increase as it should. The record-keeping program will tell a dairyman where he stands in his breeding program. Even though the market value of milk is declining, a dairyman can still increase his profits, Griffith says.

Demo Leaders Confer

County, Norfolk Will Divide A.B.C. Profits by Agreement

Any profits from the sale of alcoholic beverages in Princess Anne County will be divided between Norfolk City and the county on the basis of the 1950 census figure. The Board does not go by Chamber of Commerce population figures, it seems.

This is because the board goes by the 1950 census and according to the head count of that year Princess Anne County could muster a citizenry which totals slightly more than 36,000 people. Norfolk took in an estimated 16,000 people along with the 12.5 square miles it annexed last January 1. Thus on the surface it would seem that Norfolk took in more Princess Anne County residents than actually lived here at the time.

One of the problems created by this misconception concerned the dividing of ABC Board payments between Princess Anne County and Norfolk.

V. Alfred Etheridge county treasurer told the Board of Supervisors Monday he and Judge Robert S. Wahab, who was commonwealth's attorney at the time of annexation, worked out a formula.

"We figured the 38,000 people we lost to Norfolk was about 28 per cent of our total population," he explained.

The Norfolk City Council thought this figure fair and the Board of Supervisors went along with it by passing a resolution approving it at the Monday meeting.

As a result the ABC payments to Norfolk will be based on 28 per cent of the 36,000 people shown here by the 1950 census.

Etheridge said the formula would work "until the next census."

Mrs. Teagle Is Head of Club

The Soroptimist Club of Norfolk Virginia Beach has elected Mrs. Harry I. Teagle president for the coming year.

Also elected at the May meeting held at the Jamestown Club were Mrs. Mary Edwards, Vice-President, Miss Blair Stewart, Recording Secretary, Mrs. C. R. Gilbert, Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. W. L. Smith, Treasurer, Mrs. H. H. Harrell, Director-3 years, Mrs. R. C. Hale, Delegate—Two years, and Mrs. Murray Walden, Alternate to Delegate—two years.

Reports of the Regional Conference held in Richmond were given by the delegates, Mrs. Mary Edwards and Mrs. C. R. Gilbert.

Plans were made for the June picnic to be held at Miss Agnes Birsch's cottage "Sandy Nook," 85th Street, Virginia Beach, on Tuesday, May 26th, when the Ways and Means Committee will give a detailed report of the amount of money raised during the year for their project—Aid to the Hard of Hearing and Deaf.

HAYCOX FIRM LOW BIDDER AT DAM NECK

The Fred A. Haycox Company, general contractors, has been awarded a $823,000 construction contract on a proposed guided missile school annex building at the nearby Dam Neck facility, it was learned Tuesday.

The contract calls for completion of the construction within 360 calendar days. The new building will be of two-story construction with a pile foundation and reinforced concrete.

The new building will measure approximately 53 feet by 267 feet on the ground floor with a second floor wing to measure approximately 33 feet by 99 feet. In addition to the new building the contract also calls for construction of a one-story addition to the present school building.

County Denied Injunction on 'Interference'

A motion to restrain two political candidates from "interfering" with Princess Anne County employees was denied Tuesday in Princess Anne Circuit Court.

Circuit Court Judge Robert S. Wahab, Jr., denied the motion for a temporary injunction to enjoin William F. Hudgins, independent candidate for Circuit Court clerk, and C. Roger Malbon, candidate for sheriff, subject to the July 14 primary, from "interfering with the orderly disposal of garbage."

The County Board of Supervisors had sought the injunction and its bill of complaint alleged that Hudgins and Malbon had caused sanitation workers to "become insubordinate, unruly, and unwilling to work, or take orders."

Attorney William L. Parker, representing the County, said that defendant's actions represented interference with governmental functions.

Judge Wahab's ruling was as follows:

"The apparent conclusion from the sequence of events as alleged in the bill of complaint and shown by the petitioners' evidence is that Mr. Hudgins and Mr. Malbon engaged in certain activities which constituted a disruption, in fact and a partial strike by the county employees working in the Sanitation Department."

"However, all of the evidence presented before the court fails to make a clear showing that the defendants did by any words or acts incite or agitate these employees to become dissident or dissatisfied in the employment."

"Although these contacts and activities with the employees by Mr. Hudgins and Mr. Malbon have encouraged them to assert their alleged grievances, the evidence fails to establish that the defendants have exceeded their rights of free speech and peaceful assembly."

"Furthermore, it is not alleged nor does the evidence show a present threat to the proper functioning of the county Sanitation Department which affects the health and welfare of the public. It appears that the activities of the defendants complained of are already done and terminated."

"For the reasons stated the motion for a temporary injunction is denied."

MRS. DALE BEANLEY TO SPEAK

Mrs. Dale Beasley, superintendent of public welfare, will speak in the social hall of Galilee Episcopal Church on Monday, May 25, at 8 p.m. She will give a talk concerning relations between the welfare and the church.

Virginia Travel Council Director Is Featured on Program Designed To Promote Travel Trade; Public Invited to Participate

A panel discussion on seasonal business will highlight a program to be conducted at the Dunes Motor Hotel next Tuesday night sponsored by the Distributive Education Service of Princess Anne County Schools.

Robert F. Nelson, managing director of the Virginia Travel Council with headquarters in Richmond, will be one of the panel members, according to the announcement released this week.

Cooperating with the Distributive Education Service of the County's Public Schools in sponsoring the program are the Virginia Beach Chamber of Commerce, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Tidewater Chapter of the Virginia Hotel Association, the Exchange Club and the Retail Merchants Association of Virginia Beach.

The discussion will center on the following subjects: natural attractions, sports and amusements, repeat business, your tourist dollar and how to attract the tourist to Virginia Beach.

In addition to Nelson others slated to take part in the panel discussion include Richard Kasey, director of the Chamber of Commerce and Convention Center, Wade Williams, public relations director of "The Confederacy," W. Russell Hatchett, Virginia Beach City Manager, and John J. Bowers, former director of the Beach Chamber of Commerce.

Nelson is a past president of the National Association of Travel Organizations and is the founding father of the Virginia Travel Council. In 1948 Nelson resigned as public relations and travel director for the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce after 24 years with that organization. He then formed the Virginia Travel Council to promote travel in Virginia.

During the ten years of the Virginia Travel Council it has grown from a very small beginning until today it has some 1900 members. Its record of accomplishment is one of the best in its field in the United States.

Registration for the panel discussion is scheduled for 6 p.m. next Tuesday. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. and the discussion is set to start at 7:30 p.m. An open discussion is planned following the panel discussion program.

Chesapeake Beach Club Names Mrs. Edmondson 'First Citizen'

The Woman's Club of Chesapeake Beach proudly selected Mrs. O. T. Edmondson as "First Citizen" for 1959 at the regular monthly meeting which was held at the Bayside Christian Church, Tuesday, May 12.

Mrs. W. H. Gaylord, Public Affairs Chairman, presented Mrs. Edmondson with a silver bowl from the club members.

Kathleen Edmondson served the Woman's Club as Secretary for two years before accepting the presidency in 1956. While secretary, she was instrumental in holding parliamentary classes for club members, and served as Revisions Chairman of a Committee which revised the club by-laws and standing rules. During this period, she also helped found the Bayside Junior Woman's Club, and served that club as its first Contact Chairman.

As president, she served on the Planning Committee which instigated a drive for which sufficient funds were collected to liquidate the debt on the Chesapeake Beach Community Center. In June of last year, she participated in the note burning ceremony. Mrs. Edmondson was program chairman and historian for the club during this past year. She is resolutions chairman for the Tidewater District, and has done an outstanding job as President of the Tidewater District Council of Club Presidents.

A busy church worker, Mrs. Edmondson is Superintendent of Youth at the Haygood Methodist Church, and is Secretary for the Board of Stewards. She also teaches the Young Adult Class, which under her leadership has doubled in membership. She has served as chairman, and other capacities for fund raising activities for the new Educational Building at Haygood.

Mrs. LeRoy Ober was guest speaker at the meeting, and reviewed the book, "A Very Far Country." She was introduced by Mrs. R. J. Vellines, Fine Arts Chairman.

The following members were appointed to serve on the Annual Summer Festival Planning Committee: Mrs. O. T. Edmondson, Mrs.

W. B. Meekins, Mrs. A. H. Burns and Mrs. E. A. Hudson.

The club voted to give $25.00 towards the purchase of a 2 million volt X-ray machine for the treatment of Cancer, especially Leukemia. This machine will be installed at the Medical College of Virginia in Richmond. To assist in the purchase of this machine, of which there are none in our area, is a Virginia State Federation project. The $25.00 is an initial gift from the Chesapeake Club, and the project will be worked on through the year.

Mrs. Frederick Rieder as delegate from the Chesapeake Beach Club to the State Convention at Virginia Beach in April, reported that club as its first Contact Chairman.

Mrs. W. E. Downs reported three members in attendance in "Operation Friendship," a bus trip to Dunbar Farms in Williamsburg for the purpose of enlightening club members to the responsibilities of the clubs to the Mental hospitals. Mrs. Downs also announced the Woman's Club of Chesapeake Beach would sponsor a Typhoid Clinic in June at the Community Center, and would sponsor a Bloodmobile at Little Creek in the Gator Club on May 22.

Figures Tell A Different Story

Last Saturday when one of the biggest, if not the biggest parade in our history, took place in our city interested citizens and public officials joined in to bring favorable publicity to this city and area which means so much to a tourist center such as Virginia Beach. United States Senators, Congressmen and "Miss New York" spent the weekend here enjoying this wonderful resort section.

While all this was going on the Hudgins-Malbon ticket was holding a meeting in the new Convention Center, free of cost, and one William F. Hudgins spent most of this time lambasting this area and as he had said in a previous speech stated that Princess Anne County was broke.

Princess Anne County has a true assessed value of more than $300,000,000 and its total net indebtedness, both county and district, is $2,480,377.20. This does not take into account any money which the county may have on deposit with various banks and "to hear some of the ants talk they would try to convince you the county has five times this amount in the Bank of Virginia Beach, alone", which, of course, would bring the net debt of the county to a very small figure.

If being worth $300,000,000 and having a net debt of less than $2,000,000 makes the county broke we hope it continues to operate along these lines. Both Mr. Hudgins and Mr. C. Roger Malbon have held office. They have a record and apparently must be ashamed of it or they would run on their record as officials and discuss with the people the questions which have been asked of them in previous campaigns rather than seemingly trying to evade this issue.

It is time for Mr. Hudgins and Mr. Malbon to stand on their records and answer these questions.

Strange Conduct of A Campaign

For some seven years Cecil Land has been the superintendent of the Princess Anne County Sanitation Department, during which time it is generally agreed by everyone the county has rendered excellent service in the collection of its garbage. The rapid growth of the county has placed a heavy burden on this department but they have continued to render service in an excellent manner employing some 40 to 50 persons, mostly Negroes.

The evidence brought out in the injunction sought by the county Board of Supervisors against William F. Hudgins and C. Malbon, running on the Hudgins-Malbon ticket is, in our opinion, a disgrace to any well conducted political campaign for office. Here are two candidates, Hudgins and Malbon, who have previously been rejected by the people, running for responsible positions claiming they are interested in the affairs of the county and going out to the county garbage dump trying to create dissension among heretofore loyal county employees. The Judge in his decision in the injunction matter made a very clear statement showing what took place and we quote his decision here-with:

"The apparent conclusion from the sequence of events as alleged in the bill of complaint and shown by the petitioner's evidence is that Mr. Hudgins and Mr. Malbon engaged in certain activities which resulted in dissension, unrest and a partial strike by the county's employees working in the Sanitation Department."

What kind of government would we have in Princess Anne County if these candidates were elected? We feel the public will overwhelmingly reject this type of campaign and meddling of these candidates into affairs such as this.

The Armed Forces Day Parade

Reaction of the public to the gigantic Armed Forces Day parade held here last Saturday was almost unanimous. Most observers felt it was the very best parade ever staged here and everyone enjoyed the display of military strength and the other units that took part in the event.

Parades as successful as the recent Armed Forces Day affair do not just happen. It takes much planning and it takes the full cooperation of many individuals and groups.

The parade procession moved along Atlantic avenue without a hitch and the spectator interest was maintained throughout. This is the real mark of success for any parade.

We have written many times of the cordial relationship between the military establishments in this area and the community and the military are justly proud. We believe the fine success of the Armed Forces Day parade is a prime example of this cooperation and relationship.

We congratulate those who played a part in the success of this very highly entertaining parade. The community will look forward to other Armed Forces Day Parades here.

Virginia Beach Becoming Fisherman's Paradise

This is another good reason that fishermen from all over the Nation are beginning to recognize Virginia Beach as a real fisherman's paradise. These fish were caught in waters near Virginia Beach. Those are channel bass and the proud fishermen are "Rocky" Rockefeller, Fred Edwards, Darvitt Levitt and Capt. Hope Ansell, all of Virginia Beach. The fish ranged from 27 to 47 pounds each.

Dear Editor,

Our 4th grade class enjoyed our visit to the printing office very much. The thing that I thought most interesting was the sharp blade that cut the paper. I wouldn't like to cut my finger on that. Would you?

We have been studying Gutenberg. He invented the first printing press.

All our class enjoyed it. Here are their names: Matha Page, Winna Hostetter, Linda Taylor, Pam Fuller, Caroline Newman, Nancy Crawford, Gordon Sebold, Littleton Dennis, and Teacher Willie. We certainly did have a good time.

We'll have to say good-bye now, so good-bye.

Friends School Here Begins Drive in Expansion Program

The Virginia Beach Friends School has started a drive to raise a quarter of a million dollars for expansion. This private, co-educational school, started in 1955 with 300 pupils, eventually will accommodate 800 students in grades one through 12. This is double the present enrollment and twice the present number of grades.

A speaker at the kickoff-luncheon for the fund-raising drive on Thursday said the expansion is needed to keep up with the educational demand in this area. Stressing the need for both public and private schools, the speaker said the private schools in general have tended to lay greater stress on quality.

"The school now has one school-room and utilizes classrooms in the Society of Friends Meeting House on an eight acre Laskin tract of land just west of Virginia Beach. Eventually there will be five more buildings. Four will be classroom buildings with four classrooms in each. The fifth unit will be a large multipurpose building with cafeteria, auditorium and space for art, dance and dramatic classrooms.

It is hoped that one of the four classroom buildings may be completed by next fall. If present plans are followed the multi-purpose building would be the next erected.

The one-story fireproof units will be constructed of glass and cement block and will be connected by covered walkways.

Doyle Jr., who has served in that capacity for the past two years. Mrs. Robert D. Wilson will be the director of Friends School. There are four new members on the faculty. Mrs. Griffin Deal will again be in charge of the music program.

This will be the first year that the school has offered a sixth grade. There are a few places left in this class.

With all the many activities she puts her family first. The three fine children are 4-H members and are examples of the good family relationships in this home.

"One of the nicest things that can be said is that her extension agents say they "can always count on her."

Her records are being submitted to the State Judging Committee for consideration for a State Alumni Recognition Award.

Olin-Matthew Company made the award possible.

Your Vision and Highway Safety

Optometry has learned much from research in highway safety, and it is applying its knowledge to save lives. Most visual problems in driving can be corrected by the optometrist and thereby enhance the motorist's chances of surviving on the highways.

There are many visual factors involved in driving, such as depth perception, side vision, and coordination. Of course, there are many more.

Last year traffic accidents took the lives of 38,700 persons on U.S. highways. Automobiles collide somewhere in the nation every 42 seconds. A motor vehicle hits a stationary object every 15 seconds. A pedestrian is struck down every three and a half minutes.

These are alarming findings, particularly in view of the fact that 90 percent of all decisions and actions in driving are based on what we see and how we see.

Dr. Stanley Salasky, Virginia Beach pioneer optometrist, is continually seeking to equip himself through optometric study groups in new technique of modern refraction. The desire to afford his patients the best possible eye care, Dr. Salasky feels that he is taking the right steps in relocating his optometric office to 310 31st St. the newest shopping center at Virginia Beach and to alert himself to the necessary visual factor for survival on the highways for today's motorist.

Most states require some type of visual examination before applicants are granted licenses to drive. However, few motorists obtain a visual examination every two years, as recommended. Thus, the rising toll in fatalities, injuries and property damage.

Optometry has established that one-third of all licensed drivers have visual problems of which they are not aware. Refractive errors, especially nearsightedness and farsightedness, develop slowly and give no warning.

More than 30 million Americans obtain vision care each year. So common are visual problems, however, that the number in need of optometric care would defy all estimates.

In this light, vision specialists view with concern the seriousness of the problem and the huge educational task which lies ahead. The technical age in which we live makes it possible for everyone to enjoy the blessing of good vision.

For you, it is as near as your optometrist.

Seaside Park Opening May 22 For '59 Season

Seaside Park is entering its 53rd year of continuous operation when it opens on Friday, May 22. This popular fun spot was open just after the turn of the century (1903) when the Norfolk & Southern was in need of a long run to exercise its rail equipment, especially on weekends. Much has happened since that time in the way of outdoor amusement fare. As a matter of fact, at Seaside Park something new is added or changed each year.

This year the Park will proudly show 3 new rides — (1) known as the Laff-in-the-Dark, an inside dark ride where hobgoblins and such pop up to surprise the riders. It will be located on the Boardwalk. (2) A Tube-O-Fun ride to be located in the Kiddieland section. This ride is suitable for both children and adults and spins around as it turns. (3) A battery of 6 Galloping Horses operated individually will be located in the Kiddieland section. These new rides are in the south block of the Park's operation.

All of the other attractions have been refurbished and rebuilt and are ready to be seen in their new colors.

With the addition of the new overhead construction, all of the areas of the Park are covered for rain or shine.

The Amusement Center features a total of 50 attractions.

The north block was rebuilt two years ago and is housed in a tapestry brick building. The Park includes a modern bathhouse, a variety of concessions, and an enlarged Ballroom to which admission is free.

Last year a new refreshment stand at Atlantic Avenue and 31st Street, known as the Snackerie, was built. This caters principally to children and their families in the Kiddieland area. This new building is air conditioned and is enclosed. It will serve both from a screen opening facing the Kiddieland section and also from an enclosed area.

Al De Hanis and his band will begin playing in the Ballroom on Friday, May 29. This is their tenth season at Seaside Park.

During the opening week, May 22-28, Garland Abbott and his band will play opening night, May 22, and Fuzzy Wado and his band will play Saturday, May 23, and Sunday, May 24.

Several new key personnel have been added to the management staff. Pat Patterson, former manager of the Benmorell Enlisted Mens Club, will manage the Ball-

Virginia Beach Motels Admitted To Quality Courts

Three motels in Virginia Beach have been admitted to membership in the non-profit motel association Quality Courts United, Inc., according to the organization's president, John G. Lacooc.

They are the Mariner Motor Hotel, the Ocean Ranch Motel, and the Thunderbird Motor Lodge.

The addition of these three courts to membership brings the total in Virginia Beach to five. The other two are the Holiday Sands Motel and the Golf Ranch Motel.

Quality Courts United, Inc. is a non-profit association of some 500 independently operated motor courts located in all states east of the Mississippi and in eastern Canada.

The association is dedicated to maintaining exceedingly high standards of efficiency, comfort, management, physical property and cleanliness.

Attesting to these rigid standards is the fact that of some 3,000 applications for membership last year, only 91 were accepted.

room and also will be Director of the Bathhouse which forms part of the Ballroom building. John "Jack" Simmons will be in charge of four of the Parks restaurants.

Free Circus Acts will be given daily at 2:30 and 9:00 p.m. on the Outdoor Stage starting June 3. The Skating Regals will be the first Free act presentation. Thereafter a new act will be shown each week continuing through Labor Day.

A Fireworks Festival will be exhibited on Saturday, May 30. Other Fireworks Festivals will be displayed at various times throughout the season.

Princess Anne Woman's Club Plans Antique Fair

The Princess Anne Woman's Club at their May meeting at the Pine Tree Inn made plans for its Antique Fair and Sale to be held at the Convention Center, Virginia Beach, on October 20, 21 and 22. Proceeds will go toward a proposed Mental Hygiene Clinic for Princess Anne and Virginia Beach, and to the Princess Anne Woman's Club Community Hospital Fund. The Fair and Sale is under the Chairmanship of Mrs. Bernard B. Bateman; Co-Chairman, Mrs. Robin H. Owen.

Members approved assessment of $1.00 per member toward the purchase of a two-million volt maximum unit, used for treatment of cancer and experimental purposes at the Medical College of Virginia.

Mrs. William Powell, Welfare and Veteran's Affairs Chairman of the Club, introduced Mr. A. F. Roghough, Chief of Special Services, Veteran's Hospital, Keough, Va., as guest speaker. He told the club that the opportunities for volunteer services are varied and many, and that as a team can help the patient get well and return to his rightful place in the community. He stated that out of the paintings selected recently to be hung in the Phillips Gallery in Washington, twenty-four paintings were chosen from ones done by therapy patients of the Veteran's Administration hospitals.

Mr. A. E. Denton furnished organ music during lunch.

Dinner-Dance Set At Country Club Saturday, May 23

"Salute to Summer" will be the theme of the Princess Anne Country Club's formal dinner dance on Saturday, May 23. In preparation for this pre-season affair, all the sport facilities are receiving their final grooming, making the putting greens, the Teniko tennis courts, and the refreshing water of the pool at their best. Preceding the Fleet Mignon dinner, will be a social hour for members and their out of town guests. The latter will be especially intrigued by the array of frosty, tall, refreshing mint juleps. Such an auspicious beginning should augur a wonderful season and certainly a fine salute to summertime. Stellar attraction for the evening will be the satin smooth music of Eddie Allen and his 10-piece band. The Allen orchestra comes to the Beach after the Commonwealth and Hermitage clubs in Richmond and many previous engagements in Florida.

Henry Capps Speaks Before Beach Pilot Club

Mr. Henry Capps, Virginia Beach Youth Officer, was the principal speaker at the dinner meeting of the Virginia Beach chapter of Pilot International at the Dunes Hotel. He spoke about the "Knights Club" a boys' club formed by Mr. Capps and Mr. John Fitzgerald, to provide supervised recreation for teen-age boys. Mrs. Marguerite Nicholson showed a film stressing the importance of TB X-ray and explained the functions of the mobile units that will be here during the month of June for public X-ray. Dinner was then served to members of Pilot and their guests.

Laughter Ends Season of Little Creek Players

The Little Creek Players will close their current season as they opened it — with laughter and an occasional "murder."

This military theatrical group will present a three-act comedy, "The Terrible Turners," at 8:30 p.m. this Friday and Saturday and May 22 and 23 at the West Annex Theater, Naval Amphibious Base, Little Creek. The public is invited to all performances.

HEARING AID CONSULTANT TO VISIT CITIES IN AREA

Glen E. Sandifer, well-known hearing aid consultant, will begin making regular visits to cities in this area next week to demonstrate the world-famous Malco precision hearing aids and hearing test instruments.

He will feature the new Malco Hearing Glasses, which he says provide the most comfortable and convenient hearing correction he has seen during his 10 years as a consultant. These miniature masterpieces are available in a variety of colors and decorative designs to match and fit the user's present eyeglasses or new frames of his choice. Mr. Sandifer will also demonstrate a variety of other models for those who cannot, or do not wish to wear eyeglass hearing aids. These include a tiny, new behind-the-ear aid, a barrette aid designed to be worn in the hair, and several conventional models.

He will also be available on appointment to demonstrate hearing test instruments to schools, doctors and industry. Persons wishing service on Malco products or a free demonstration of new aids or testing equipment may make appointments by contacting:

Grandmother's Gingersnaps

Crisp, thin gingersnaps and very baked apples are good winter dessert.

Thin gingersnaps, so crisp they almost broke at a touch, were Grandmother's specialty. Grandfather liked them best of all with a side dish of very baked apples.

The secret of Grandmother's cookies, we learned as we grew up, was her skill in working with a very soft dough. Dearly she rolled out the soft, fragrant dough until it was almost paper-thin. Then she cut round cookies that always seemed perfect. When we tried making the cookies, the dough stuck to the board and to the rolling pin. So we added flour, and the cookies came out tough and hard instead of crisp and tender. Grandmother just smiled.

Nowadays, few of us have time for laborious rolling out of dough and cutting out of cookies, no matter how delicious the results. To our great delight,

GRANDMOTHER'S GINGERSNAPS (about 5 dozen 2-inch cookies)

3 cups sifted flour
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1 tablespoon ginger
1/2 cup fine dry bread crumbs
1/2 cup molasses
1/2 cup lard
2 tablespoons cold water

Into large mixing bowl stir together flour, sugar, soda, salt, cinnamon and ginger. Add crumbs and stir with fork to mix. Make well in center of dry ingredients. Into well pour molasses, melted and cooled margarine and water. Mix thoroughly. Drop by teaspoonfuls on greased cookie sheet. Press flat with bottom of tumbler covered with foil or moist clean cloth. Press each bit of dough

Are you a "much-loved" grandmother? You will be if you keep the cookie jar filled with cookies. What nicer way to fill it than trying out the gingersnap recipe?

I found a recipe for Molasses Butterballs in the Farm Journal's Country Cook Book and if you want to try it, you'd better hide enough for the late arrivals, or there won't be one left.

Molasses Butterballs
1 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cup molasses
2 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon salt
2 cups finely chopped walnuts

Cream butter, add molasses, then stir in sifted flour and salt, then nuts. Thoroughly mix.

Shape dough into small balls. Place on greased baking sheet, bake at 350 degrees F. 25 minutes or until lightly browned. Roll in confectioners sugar while warm. Makes four dozen.—Bye Now.

African Violet

Group Holds Meet

The May meeting of the Lynn-haven African Violet Society was held Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. H. R. Payne, Jr.

Mrs. K. E. Moore was accepted into the club as a new member.

The ladies were very much impressed with the lovely arrangement made by Mrs. H. E. Billups using a piece of cork, driftwood and African violets combined with other spring flowers. Be sure you start with a good needle point and have it secured in your container is the advice Mrs. Billups gave the club. Violets that are to be used in arrangements must be picked several hours in advance and conditioned in very warm water.

Mrs. J. S. Speight was appointed as membership chairman and Mrs. A. E. Frazier Exhibit chairman.

The clubs first year book will be ready for the September meeting and was announced by the chairman. Two ladies having birthdays during May, Mrs. V. A. Rollins and Mrs. C. L. Hershberger were honored by the other ladies who brought them violet leaves to root.

LIST SOIL ORGANISMS FIGHT IT OUT

Soil micrology, the study of minute organisms living together in the soil is a new emphasis in basic agricultural research. This statement was made last Wednesday at the Vegetable School by Dr. Victor R. Boswell, Chief of Vegetables and Ornamentals for the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Dr. Boswell predicts a big increase in this type of research. He says this can mean more to the long time health and stability of agriculture than any other angle of research. In fact he says it is not basic just to vegetables, but to all phases of agriculture.

Dr. Boswell says that entomologists tell him that more and more insects are getting resistant to more and more chemical poisons, therefore, in the future we will have to resort to biological control. Chemical methods are costly at best. They work, but they create other problems, says Dr. Boswell. And soil born diseases can not be sprayed or dusted and we need other methods.

The basic idea here is to fit one soil organism against another. This will encourage the growth of good ones and discourage the growth of bad ones.

Other ways of controlling various diseases of the soil and by breeding plants that are resistant to diseases and insects. This has succeeded to a limited degree at the present time.

STABILIZE MARKETING

Stabilized marketing is needed from Florida to Delaware said Casper Battaglia, Jr. of the Battaglia Produce Company. This is largely a matter of solving the human problem of getting together to cultivate an understanding. Mr. Battaglia says that a spirit of cooperation must exist between government agencies, farmers, and processors in order to assure that they get the fair share of the gross national product, and be able to stay in business.

Several times during the day various people made comments at the Vegetables School about farmers getting together into organizations to sell their produce cooperatively. This will encourage more orderly marketing, will insure a better bargain power, insure a more uniform quality, and also a more uniform volume; therefore, we hope to get through this type of selling increased sales.

TWO-HEADED MONSTER PROBLEM

Dr. Douglas E. Greenwood, Virginia Truck Experiment Station Entomologist, said vegetable growers have a real problem of protecting their crops from insects and diseases and at the same time keep their products safe for human consumption. He has been doing considerable work on crop residues. Dr. Greenwood presented some tables showing that dust residue on kale and collards disappears twice as rapidly as the spray form does, but he emphasized that the amount of residue varies with the crop and even among the leaf crops.

Farmers must be sure that when they do a job of insect control that they are also following the proper recommendations in order not to get too high a residue on the produce.

SALINE PROBLEM

Dr. Jesse Lunin, USDA Soil Research Scientist, indicated that water of a limited salinity may be used safely for irrigation as long as certain factors are in balance.

He emphasized that salinity already in the soil to be added into the water and that to result from fertilizer used must be taken into account. He said that salinity may vary in the same body of irrigation water requiring a salt content analysis each time the water is to be used. Some saline contents are poisonous to some plants, but the general effect of salt is to make less water available in the soil to plants.

SUPER QUALITY STRAWBERRIES

Mr. M. M. Parker, Truck Station horticulturist, said that top quality strawberries may be obtained in May by setting out spaced Potomac plants in November or stored plants in mid-August.

He said, however, that the plants would not produce top-size berries the second year and still smaller berries the third year. However, spacing would give them better quality than the conventional bed plantings at least the first two years.

Mr. Parker says this method of producing strawberries would not be practical on a commercial scale, but on a small scale it is the best way found, so far, to get the super quality berry.

LAMB PRICES GOOD

Lamb prices are looking very good this spring. At the special lamb sale held May 13 at the Smithfield Livestock Yard, prime lambs sold for $26.15 cwt. Choice lambs sold for $24.80, good lambs sold for $22.35, and medium lambs sold for $21.40.

Buck lambs brought $1.00 less cwt. than castrated lambs of the same grade, therefore, a very small time spent in the management practices on lambs pays a cent a pound. There will be other lamb sales in the future. I would like to advise farmers to take advantage of these special lamb sales because I believe that farmers are being paid the better market price for their lambs when they go into the special pool. Now the reason for this is that when large numbers of lambs get together the larger buyers can justify their time in coming to the sales and get the order that they desire. Therefore, these type of sales are usually giving the farmer a better share of the market price than just general marketing of lambs on ordinary sales days.

DON'T FORGET ARMY WORMS

Army worms on small grain, pastures, and corn are becoming more and more difficult. Infestations are growing each day and the size of the worms are becoming larger. Now again let the advise farmers to constantly observe all of their crops that can be damaged by army worm and to apply control measures at once. Army worms can do considerable damage unless control measures are followed. Please contact me for help that you may need.

WATER FOGGERS PROFITABLE WITH SWINE ON PERKING FLOORS

The use of water foggers during warm weather on hogs kept on confinement feeding floors will pay handsomely.

Hogs do not sweat and can be seriously affected by heat. Recent work at several universities has indicated that the use of water foggers on fattening hogs during hot weather will increase gains an average of 10 per cent over those animals which have shade alone. No particular increase in feed efficiency was noted in some reports, while other data show a two to three per cent improvement in feed efficiency. Because of the non-absorbent surface, foggers work best on concrete and can be used for relief from excessive heat. However, problems can arise if the adjustment and location are not correct.

In areas of high humidity, moisture problems can develop if the water output from the nozzle is greater than the rate of evaporation. The nozzle should produce a very fine mist with normal farm water pressure, and have an output of 2 to 3 gallons of water. If this output is greater than the rate of evaporation, excess moisture will collect on the concrete below the nozzles and in time the hogs will excrete in this area rather than along the manure gutter. All nozzles should have a good straining system to prevent foreign matter from altering the rate and spray.

Two sprays will handle 50 head in a concrete finishing floor. Experience has shown that locating the nozzles six to eight feet above the floor level increases coverage and enables these animals to benefit from the spray — frequently without moving. Feeders should not be in line with the spray if the spray is carried by prevailing winds.

MECHANIZATION CAN HELP CUT EGG COSTS

Mechanization is helping many farmers to stay in the poultry business, says Denver D. Bragg, Poultry Specialist at VPI.

Proper use of labor saving devices and equipment allows many farmers to increase the size of their operation and cut operating costs per bird so as to maintain a more satisfactory income during this period of narrowing profit margins.

A study conducted in Illinois showed automatic watering equipment is desirable for most any size flock. Studies reflected a cost of $31 per 1,000 birds to water hens using mechanical equipment compared to $200 per year to water them by hand when labor made up 90 per cent of the cost.

Research indicates that mechanical feeders can help cut costs if the operator has as many as 1,000 layers and labor is worth as much as one dollar per hour. It should be noted that in many instances family labor or even the time of the operator cannot always be sold for as much as one dollar per hour.

Mechanical feeders become more desirable with larger enterprises. Arranging to fill automatic feeder hoppers by gravity from elevated feed storage bins is still another way of cutting down on labor costs.

Dropping pit cleaners which remove the droppings from under the pits every two or three days help to keep the litter dry and reduce the fly problems. By placing most of the feeders and waterers over the pit area and with more frequent elimination of the droppings from the house more birds can also be placed in the building and overhead costs be reduced.

With a trend toward less floor space per bird, more and more importance must be placed on ven-

Two Local Girls To Graduate from Mary Washington

The Reverend Mary Ely Lyman, B.A., B.D., Ph.D., D.D., LL.D., LL.M., Jeasup Professor Emerita of English Bible, Union Theological Seminary, New York, will preach the baccalaureate sermon at Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia Sunday, May 31, at 11:00 a.m. (EST) in George Washington Auditorium. Former Governor Colgate W. Darden, Jr., B.A., M.A., LL.B., LL.D., President of the University of Virginia, is to deliver the address at graduation Monday morning, June 1, at 10:30 in the Amphitheatre. Chancellor Grellet C. Simpson will award the diplomas and give the message to the graduates.

Among the 230 candidates for degrees, representing 18 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and Formosa, Gloria Virginia Winslow of Langston Road, Princess Anne, a graduate of Princess Anne High School who has majored in English. She is a member of the YWCA cabinet and Alpha Phi Sigma, national honorary scholastic fraternity.

Barbara Connell Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Hunter of Abingdon Road, Virginia Beach, a graduate of Norfolk Catholic High School who has majored in psychology. She belongs to the Psychology Club.

Illation, if the moisture given off by the birds is not removed, objectionable odors, wet litter and even disease troubles may occur. Some moisture can be eliminated by frequent removal of droppings. However, there must be an exchange of air and additional moisture removed by proper ventilation.

Chevy pickup pulls through "bottomless" pastures to keep stock fed!

"At the Hall Bros. Dairy Farm, Montgomery, Ala., they say this 4-wheel drive Chevy will go anywhere to keep stock fed—even through hub-deep muck that makes it a fight all the way. And yet after a full year of it—no mechanical trouble of any kind!"

That Chevy pickup may not win any beauty awards (till it's cleaned up). But it's sure walking off with the top prize for dependability. And that's standard Chevrolet procedure. Put a Chevy truck to work and it keeps on working until you say quit. Not before. We aren't claiming that every Chevrolet truck is turning out to be a miracle-worker and averaging 100,000 miles before a valve job. (Even though some are going 150,000!) You're sure to find, however, that you can't buy more truck dependability at any price. And that's borne out by the fact that more truck owners put their faith, and their payloads, in Chevrolets than in any other make. Take your load and schedule figures to your Chevrolet dealer. He'll specify the best way to handle both and save in the bargain.

No job's too tough for a Chevrolet truck!

Now's the time—see your local authorized Chevrolet dealer for a real truck buy!

FIRES, POLICE INCREASE IN NEW CITY BUDGET COURT CLERK FENTRESS ATTACKS HUDGINS-MALBON TICKET

Organization Candidate Reveals Pertinent Facts to Businessmen

(The following is the full text of a speech made by John V. Fentress, incumbent Circuit Court clerk, to members of the Democratic Club of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County, on May 20, 1959. Fentress is seeking re-election on the Organization ticket, subject to the July 14 Democratic primary.)

"I think it quite fitting that the first public speech that I make in this campaign, will be made to a group of young outstanding business men of our area, who are interested in the type of government that we have, under which you and your families live, and which government will be passed on to coming generations.

"In order to participate in government you must not only vote but you must retain for yourself and your children the right and the privilege of casting your ballot for the candidates of your choice.

"The very first thing that the candidates on the Hudgins-Malbon ticket tried to do was to take away from you the right to name your own candidates. To have a committee of five—three of whom would not be residents of the county—the fourth, a Republican, not eligible to participate in the primary, name your officials for you, and you would have to swallow it, hook, line and sinker.

"This letter was signed by seven candidates running on the Hudgins-Malbon ticket, and I believe the reasons that they did this was because when their records have been revealed to the people they are sure that they would be rejected at the polls.

"This, of course, is the most undemocratic thing that has ever been suggested to intelligent people and I, like you, resent it with every ounce of my energy. I think it quite proper that I speak to you this evening on some of these issues of the campaign.

"In a release by Virgil Elliott, who claims to be the manager for the Malbon-Hudgins combine, Elliott had this to say—Dunn and Heath have no voice in our independent group.

"Yet, last Saturday, I have Adams running for Supervisor for Lynnhaven District, took time out to compliment Mr. Dunn. They may deny that Dunn has anything to do with the campaign but as I interpret it, he seems to be calling the shots and telling them what to do.

"In Mr. Adams' speeches, all he wants to do is criticize U. S. Steel, labor unions and Harry Byrd. If Mr. Adams hates U. S. Steel and the labor unions that is his privilege. But if he hates Harry Byrd he should have nerve enough to have publicly opposed him last fall when Senator Byrd was a candidate for re-election.

"If he voted last fall, and I assume he did, he has made oath that he voted for Senator Byrd. And if he does not have the courage of his convictions, what kind of candidate would he make? "When Mr. Adams votes for himself on July 14th, it will be the first vote he has ever cast in Princess Anne County.

"And if you will look on the voting list of Princess Anne County you will not find the name of the candidate on his ticket for treasurer, because he has not paid his poll tax in Princess Anne County.

"How interested can they be in your affairs when this is the record of these two men.

"Last Saturday the candidate on the Hudgins-Malbon ticket for Commissioner of Revenue made reference to the Organization or Court House ring. What this man failed to tell you was that his wife works at Princess Anne Court House, and if there is any Court House ring she must be a part and parcel of it, because she is one of the highest paid employees there. What kind of a man is this who will publicly criticize his own wife?

"There are two men on this ticket. The two men who head it, C. Roger Malbon and Bill Hudgins, who have been overwhelmingly rejected by the people, and I think it is because of the type of service they rendered to the people of Princess Anne County while they were paid public officials that caused this rejection.

"During Malbon's term as sheriff, it was common practice for prisoners to escape from the jail, so much so that it got to be routine for people to ask each morning, 'Who got out of jail last night?' 'If you will take the time to

Annual Lotus Festival Slated Week of July 15

The Fifth Annual Lotus Festival Week will open July 15th with "Confederacy Night." The Cape Henry Woman's Club announced the schedule of events this week for the Lotus Festival which they have sponsored since its inauguration in 1955. Mrs. E. Tickets for the July 15 performance may be obtained from any member of the Cape Henry Woman's Club. Queen Lotus V will be crowned at intermission on the stage of the Robert E. Lee Amphitheatre. Special guests for the performance will be the past Lotus Queens. The proceeds of ticket sales will be used for Lotus conservation and general welfare. Mrs. Truman C. Litterbugs, Beware!

The City of Virginia Beach is cracking down on litterbugs who would throw trash and litter around the city.

Evidence of the crackdown came in the form of an arrest here this week. The guilty party was found guilty in city court and received a heavy fine for his act.

Garden clubs, civic groups and city officials have been waging a year-round campaign to keep the city clean. The campaign is a part of an overall drive to make and keep Virginia Beach a beautiful, clean city.

Mrs. Pennington pointed out that

Supervisor Darden Says Funds Available To Alleviate Flooding Condition in County

Lynnhaven District Supervisor James G. Darden told fellow members of the Princess Anne County Board of Supervisors Monday that the sum of $4,100 has been set aside to correct flooding conditions on Route 809 in the county and that the work will be done this summer.

Darden reported that the money had been budgeted by the State Highway Department for the work. Darden said that work to eliminate low places in the road is to start immediately. Last month residents of Bay Island and Broad Bay Point complained that Route 809, which furnishes access to their homes, flooded at high water.

In another development the Board voted to recommend that the speed limit on part of the Military Highway be reduced from 55 to 45 miles per hour.

Favoring Supervisor Swindell Pollock's resolution were James G. Darden, Carroll L. Clough and Pollock, all representing the more populous districts in Princess Anne County. James E. Snyder voted against the resolution and S. Paul Brown and Kenneth Whitehurst refrained from voting.

Pollock, who represents the Kempville District, told the board that residents of Elizabeth River Shores had requested him to ask for a reduction in the speed limit. "At least three people of our community have had accidents (on the Military Highway) when they tried to make a turn into Elizabeth River Shores and were hit by drivers who failed to come to a stop," said a letter from S. J. Farris, president of the Civic League of Elizabeth River Shores.

Norfolk recently reduced the speed limit from 55 to 45 miles an hour on that part of the Military Highway which lies within the city. Although the ordinance has passed City Council, the change has not as yet taken place.

The board accepted a bid of $250 for the right to operate the parking lot at Sand Bridge between May 28 and Sept. 8. The bid of James H. Kabler was accepted. Fee agreed not to charge in excess of 25 cents per car for parking.

Council Passes Measure Calling For No Tax Raise; Surplus Distinct Possibility

The Virginia Beach City Council on Monday passed on first reading a 1959-1960 budget that calls for a $240 yearly raise for firemen and policemen and no increase in the present tax structure. City Manager W. Russell Hatchett estimated that although expenditures in the coming fiscal year are expected to be $86,242.90 greater than they were last year, revenues should be $93,242.90 greater. This would leave a surplus of $27,000. Hatchett said there would be no change in the tax structure of $2.00 per hundred. The revenue for the city in the coming year will be $1,747,203.51, and the expenditures $1,720,203.51. Hatchett estimated the 1959-60 budget was $1,653,500. Some 35 to 38 men will be affected by the salary increase, Hatchett said. The top minimum for patrolmen and firemen was raised from a $4,000 base to $4,320. The $240 increase will also apply to some foremen in other city departments, Hatchett said.

Estimated revenues from various local taxes are as follows: amusement, $20,000; cigarette tax, $22,500; hotel room and meal tax, $105,000; and restaurant general tax, $60,000. The current general property taxes are expected to return $670,000, and business licenses are expected to bring in $130,000.

Total police department salaries including school patrols will be $106,850, fire department salaries $65,043, and convention hall salaries $25,000.

The total school operating fund will be $338,000.

Estimated salaries for city employees are as follows: mayor and councilmen, a total of $3,300; city manager, $7,000; police judge, $3,000; police and fire chief, $3,500 each; and director of convention hall, $10,000.

The city council unanimously renewed the lease on the former community center with the Knights of Honor Club for $1 a year.

Country Day School Program For Commencement Is May 29

The first commencement of the Country Day School for Girls will take place May 29th at 8:30 in the dome of the Virginia Beach Convention Center with 12 seniors receiving diplomas.

The exercises will be distinguished by a nationally prominent figure in the field of education, Dr. Anne Gary Pannell, president of Sweet Briar College, who will give the graduation address.

Dr. Pannell, a graduate of Barnard College, Phi Beta Kappa, winner of the Gerard Gold Medal in American History and the Barnard International Fellowship, is a trustee of the College Entrance Examination Board and one of nine college presidents comprising the scholarship board of the Ford Motor Company Fund. Dr. Pannell is also on the administrative committee of the Southern Fellowship Fund and has served on the National Commission on Faculty Fellowship for the Advancement of Education.

The Rev. Henry Morgan will give the invocation and a number of awards will be made to outstanding students as well as certificates of merit to honor students. During the evening's program the entire student body, dressed in white, will sing (for the first time) the Country Day School song with music written by Mrs. Anderson E. Carmichael, words by a senior student, Katherine Tallaferra.

OCEAN PARK WOMAN'S CLUB PINE ARTS MEETING

According to Mrs. Michael Henry, Pine Arts Chairman of the Ocean Park Woman's Club, their project for the year is studying the history of Princess Anne County and particularly the area of Baylake Pines and the Lynnhaven River.

The group met Thursday, May 21, at the home of Mrs. Henry and proceeded to explore Blackbeard's island which is opposite Blackbeard road in Baylake Pines. The island is rich in lore. Many old timers swear that Blackbeard, the notorious pirate, buried some of his treasure on this island. However, Mrs. Henry and her group failed to find any of it on their outing. They did, however, notice chrysantheums and other flowers, which would not be considered "wild" growing on the island.

Following the outing the group returned to the home of Mrs. Cam Farmer for an outdoor lunch. Mrs. Henry read an article on the history of Witchduck Point, which is located on the Lynnhaven River and is said to be the spot where the Princess Anne witch, Grace Sherwood, was ducked. In those days women who were suspected of being witches were ducked. If they were innocent, they drowned. Grace Sherwood floated and was judged guilty.

BAYSIDE LIONS CLUB

The Bayside Lions Club held their regular meeting Wednesday night, May 20, at Shore Drive Inn. The president, William D. Naggs, presided.

An induction ceremony by Lion

Charley Geel, membership chairman, was the feature of the meeting. The following new members were officially inducted into the club: Lions Charles Lyon, John Quinlan and Wade Duke. The chairman was assisted by Lions N. C. Chandler and Ernest Posey who talked briefly about the history and organization of Lions International.

Lion C. B. Ostrander, program chairman, announced that the club will have a "Ladies Night Program" in conjunction with the installation of new officers on Friday, June 19. This meeting will be held at the Fort Story Officers Club.

An evening of entertainment is planned for this occasion.

Vice president Gene Caldwell reported that the club's annual "Broom Sale" held recently was a great success. Thanks to the fine response of the residents of the Bayside area the members of the Bayside Lions Club sold over $4,000.00 worth of brooms and other articles, most of which were made by blind workers. This is the club's major fund raising activity and the net from the sale provides a large part of the club's activities funds for next year.

Lion Caldwell is to be congratulated for the fine way in which he planned this sale and the entire club membership is proud to have a part in making this the best sale the club has ever held. Several of the Lions' wives also helped by selling to customers who called at the store in the Bayside Shopping Center during the days of the sale.

Zone chairman, Jack Woods, attended this meeting and thanked

Coin-Operated Laundromat Store Opens at Bobeh

Starting Wednesday, May 27, housewives in the 31st Street area will have convenient, efficient laundry facilities at their disposal—for that date marks the grand opening of the new Bobeh Laundromat located at 31st Street. In order to introduce neighbors to his new Laundromat, owner Pete Bobeh will offer free washes for two days, Wednesday and Thursday, May 27 and 28, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 7 p.m.

The Scotch Laundromat will be unattended and coin-metered and remain open 24 hours a day, seven days a week—including Sundays and holidays—in order to provide a necessary, modern convenience for working people and busy housewives who can do their laundry only after normal business hours. Bobeh has provided the citizens of Virginia Beach with the most complete, most modern laundry facilities available, including 40 washers, 12 dryers and extractor, 25-lb. washers, vending machines.

The new Laundromat offers its customers many benefits. First, and most important, it provides all the advantages of doing the laundry at home—with none of the disadvantages. Customers can simultaneously use as many washers and dryers as they need in order to do an entire family wash—thus enabling them to finish a week's laundry in less than one hour. The store also provides plenty of hot, rain-soft water which, in turn, means cleaner, whiter washes as well as a saving on soap or detergent. Because the new Laundromat has no attendants and customers do-it-themselves, they will save as much as 50% each week on their laundry. Prices will be 20c for a 9-lb. washer load for ten minutes of drying time.

CHEVY GIVES YOU 7 BIG BESTS!

Take it, not from us, but from the published opinions of outside, independent experts and from on-the-record facts and figures: Chevrolet gives you these 7 big bests over any other car in its field!

BEST BRAKES

In direct competitive tests of repeated stops from highway speeds, conducted by MOTOR, Chevy out-stopped both the other leading low-priced cars—and why not? Chevy brakes are far larger, built with bonded linings for up to 66% longer life.

National Association for Stock Car Adjustment and Research

BEST ECONOMY

No doubt about this: two Chevrolet Sixes won their class in the famous Mobilgas Economy Run, got the best mileage of any full-size car.

Automobile Manufacturers Association

BEST ROOM

Official dimensions reported to A.M.A. make this clear. For example, Chevy front seat hip room is up to 5.7 inches wider than competitive cars.

BEST STYLE

POPULAR SCIENCE magazine sums it up: "The fact is, in its price class the Chevy establishes a new high in daring styling..." It's the only car of the leading low-priced, three that's unmistakably '59 in every modern line.

BEST TRADE-IN

Check the figures in any official N.A.D.A. Guide Book. You'll find that Chevy used car prices last year averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the "other two."

National Automobile Dealers Association

BEST RIDE

You'll be able to tell this yourself, instantly. But MOTOR TREND magazine expresses it this way: "...the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class."

PLUS THESE TREMENDOUS TRIFLES

Who'd want to do without Chevrolet's extra luxuries? Like Safety Plate Glass in every window, the protection of full wraparound bumpers, crank-operated ventilators, the convenience of single-key locking, a real overhead curved windshield, oil-bathed hydraulic valve lifters in every standard engine for quieter running, a bigger luggage compartment with side wall lining... and the convenience of automatic choke in every model!

Determine Travel Time in Vacation Plans for Safety

Now that you've got your car in tip-top condition, an OK from the boys, reservations made, your route determined, and your fishing equipment in order, are you ready for that vacation trip?

Unless you have determined your traveling time, your plans are incomplete, advises the Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company.

For maximum safety, you should allocate a definite amount of time for traveling. If you plan to travel on turnpikes or limited access highways, you should allow two hours traveling time for every 100 miles you plan to travel. Secondary road travel dictates allowing three hours time for every 100 miles you will cover. This will enable you to travel at a safe speed and include gasoline, coffee and rest stops along the way.

Keep in mind that the above guides are for passenger vehicles only. If you plan to tow a trailer or a boat on your vacation, your trip time should be increased to afford maximum safety.

It should be noted that increasing your speed does not appreciably decrease your traveling time. It does, however, increase your chances of having an accident.

The Institute says that drivers who plan their trips from city to city or over a given distance, in terms of average trip speed, have taken a progressive step toward safer driving.

Merchant Marine Academy Cadets Being Sought

Today, Congressman Thomas N. Downing announced that he is accepting requests for nominations as a candidate for appointment to the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy. The Academy is located at King Point, Long Island, New York, about 18 miles from New York City.

The Academy offers a four-year course leading to a license as an officer in the U.S. Merchant Marine, a commission as Ensign in the U.S. Naval Reserve and the Bachelor of Science Degree. The sophomore year is spent as a cadet on merchant vessels of the U.S. Merchant Marine.

Tuition, room and board, required uniform and textbooks as well as medical and dental care are furnished by the United States Government.

A candidate must be, single, in excellent health, must have reached his 17th but not his 22nd birthday by July 1, 1960, be a high-school graduate or now in his senior year. Those selected as a result of the College Entrance Examination Board's tests in March 1960, and other pertinent factors, will enter the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy in August 1960.

Student Guidance: What Does It Really Mean?

Parents—this is the first of a series of articles dealing with the problem of student guidance. The purpose of this column is to help parents understand the need for understanding and guidance for their children in the school situation.

By Dr. Edward C. Koerber

Just exactly what is vocational guidance? Don't be embarrassed if you don't know the answer. The truth of the matter is that probably the majority of the parents of school age children in this country are in the same boat as you.

Frankly, insofar as the overwhelming majority of American educators is concerned, this is not a good situation. You need to know about vocational guidance and what it means because you owe it to your children to know.

Basically, vocational guidance is simply this: a service provided through our school systems to assist pupils in making intelligent decisions regarding subjects which will prepare them for their life's work. You've heard the saying about a "square peg in a round hole" and it is unfortunately true that too many human beings find themselves in this predicament when it is too late to do anything about it, or when it means giving up seniority or financial security in order to shift occupations.

As a result, it is undoubtedly true that fine talents are wasted because young men and young women aren't doing that for which they are most interested.

At the risk of oversimplifying the problem, let's say that the primary function of vocational guidance is to prevent any square pegs from getting in round holes.

When grammar school youngsters are asked, "What do you want to be when you grow up?" The most popular answers are always locomotive engineers, policemen, nurses, movie stars, doctors, forest rangers, firemen, and maybe bus drivers; but these answers are dream answers. In just a few short years some of these same youngsters may be thinking seriously about engineering, education, journalism, banking, law, medicine, or business administration.

In every high school of America there are young men and young women who are perplexed about their future, their educational and vocational plans.

We owe it to our youth and to our country to do everything we can to see that the native talents of American youth are steered in the direction which will best serve mankind as well as the individual.

Let's take a look, for example, at Bill. He could be in any high school in America. What's on Bill's mind? For one thing, he is wondering whether he will ever amount to anything. Like everyone else he wants to be somebody—nothing extra special but a regular guy with a regular job living a respectable life. Bill wants his share of the future. He wants a chance to develop some special skills and to get those things which we in America take for granted.

It all sounds quite simple to those of us who have already made a place for ourselves in the world of work. To Bill, however, it is not quite so simple.

Bill is wondering about a lot of things. Should he go to college? He'll need help. Perhaps his family would have to give up all its savings. And what about his brother and sister? They will need help, too. Or, after high school, should he take some special training? Should he follow his Dad's trade or strike out on his own?

Dad could help him get started, sure, but maybe Bill isn't sure he wants to do what Dad has done all his life.

There's nothing wrong with Dad's job, but Bill wants to do something with electronics—at least he thinks he does.

What about chances for finding a job in that field?

And how about the armed services? He might be able to get some special training if he enlists. How much choice would he have?

And so it goes. Lots of questions. Where are the answers? Professional guidance is the answer.

If Bill were the only one with such questions, there would be no need for vocational guidance. But the easy of Bill can be multiplied many times, and in addition there are all the Marys and other young women who also have special problems in career planning.

Bill and Mary need special help in planning for and gaining a foothold in a career.

Jack, will soon leave high school, having earned top honors in his class. He would like to try for a medical degree some day, but he realizes it will take at least eight years of college work. Jack is wondering whether he has what it takes to get good marks in college. What would he do if he found, after a couple of years in college, that he couldn't do the work well?

He would also like to know whether to go to a small college or a big university. Because his scholarship will not cover all his expenses, he would like to know how to earn part of his way. Or would that affect his marks and thus stop him from being accepted at a medical school? What would he do if he were not accepted?

Jack also knows that there are many who would like to get into these schools and that there are not enough places for all of them. What else could he do for a living? Maybe something in biology, chemistry, or pharmacy?

Jim is a tenth grade student in a large school. He has made average marks, but has had special difficulties with English. Currently she is undecided about whether to drop school as soon as she is sixteen. She is wondering what kinds of work she can find if she leaves school.

How does one go about finding a job? Does a high school diploma make any difference in finding jobs? If she decided to stay in school, which ones of the many courses should she take? For a change, she would like something which interests her. Of course, if she "sticks it out," she can be a better worker in English?

Jim is not interested in a college degree. But he wants a trade of some kind, some work where he can build or repair things. He is not sure as yet what trade to enter. In or near his home town are three kinds of schools, a trade school, a technical school, and a college offering a two-year course. There are also several industries with apprenticeship programs. He is wondering whether to go to one of these schools, to start an apprenticeship as soon as he graduates, or to begin learning a trade of one of the armed services. What is best for him?

Ron dropped out of school when he was sixteen. Since that time, he has held several "dead end" jobs. Each one paid enough to live on, but none of them offered him a chance for promotion or learning any special skill. Whichever way he turns he feels that the "good" jobs require at least a high school education. At the present time he is waiting to be drafted and feels sorry for himself, not sure what to do while he waits. Ron needs guidance desperately.

Industry/education in America

"The Square Peg in the Round Hole" has brought about an increasing number of occupations—probably more than 40,000 at the present time. Technological changes have been taking place at such a rapid pace that forecasting occupational trends has become a hazardous occupation. Twenty years ago there was no such person as a space doctor. Today we cannot predict how many will be needed in the next twenty years.

Farming has become so highly mechanized and scientific that fewer farmers can feed more people.

Refrigeration has changed the transportation of foods, such as oranges from crates to cans. The influences of American inventiveness upon jobs is endless. Young people today must aim at a "moving target" for the world of work does not stand still. They have to learn to aim at and adjust to as many far-reaching changes as possible—quite a task for even an expert on the subject.

As America becomes involved in a struggle for survival it is essential that every person develop his talents as much as possible. As a nation it is impossible to depend upon sheer numbers in the population for survival but rather upon ingenuity and an ability to outproduce unfriendly nations. Our young people are the hope of the future. They will be "pressured" to do this or to do that. Recruitment for various occupations may influence someone to enter an occupation for which he is not suited and where he is not as productive as he might be.

Somehow the Bills and Marys must work their ways through the maze of opportunities, blind alleys, and obstacles. They can be helped in an organized manner. This is vocational guidance. An organized approach to vocational guidance is already present in some schools throughout America. In these schools Bill and Mary are helped to find various kinds of information about themselves and possible educational and occupational opportunities. Some of the information is given to them individually, as they need it, or in groups, such as regular classes, home-rooms, or occupational planning courses. In addition, counselors, and teachers with special skills, counsel and talk over with the students how they can best use their talents in relation to different kinds of training and occupational requirements. Because young people grow and change with new experiences, they find these services available to them all through high school. Many who see the value in helping young men and women "get a good start" in the world of work hope that every young American can have an opportunity to receive adequate vocational guidance in his high school, regardless of its size or location.

Scientists Request Return of Tags From Crabs

Approximately 7500 blue crabs carrying brilliant red button tags will be released in the York, Rapahannock, James and Back Rivers this summer and fall as part of a study being conducted by W. A. Van Engel and F. J. Wojcik, crab biologists of the Virginia Fisheries Laboratory, Gloucester Point.

They expect to obtain information from tag returns that will permit them to make accurate predictions of future crab catches. This information is obviously of tremendous importance to men engaged in the crabbing industry.

The tag used by the biologists is a red plastic disc 7/16 inches in diameter attached to the back of a crab by Monel wire. Anyone catching a crab bearing such a disc is requested, to mail the tag to the Virginia Fisheries Laboratory at Gloucester Point. The finder should state the date and place of capture of each crab (river, point, nearest town, nearest light or buoy). If a female crab is caught the sender should also state whether it was carrying eggs. Most of the crabs tagged will be females. A letter stating when and where the crab was tagged and a reward of 25 cents for each tag will be sent to all those who return tags.

Tagged crabs will be released at weekly intervals this summer in the York River to show the speed of migration of crabs and the number of York River crabs that are caught in the Bay, in other rivers, and in the ocean. Crabs will be tagged in the other rivers in late summer. Tags recovered by crab dredgers from December through March, 1960, will show the contribution made by each river to the dredge boat catch.

date over 1,000 persons at a seating. The teenagers have not been overlooked. There is continuous free dancing in the ballroom and also in the air conditioned Nook Club Room.

The renovated 40-room hotel will be in full operation from opening day.

NEWS FOR VETERANS

WORLD WAR II VETERANS MUST GET GI LOANS BEFORE JULY 1, 1960
Judging from the number of inquiries coming into our office, many World War II veterans are showing interest in the deadline for GI home loans. Under present law World War II veterans have only until July 25, 1960 to apply for GI loans guaranteed by the VA to purchase homes, farms or businesses. The same deadline applies to applications for direct home loans from the Veterans Administration, a program affecting veterans in areas where there are no lending agencies making GI loans. The 1960 date is the deadline for filing the application; there is still a full year thereafter to close out the loan.

Korean veterans have a lot more time. Their GI loan deadline is in 1965, also with a full year afterward to complete details of the transaction. During the month of April the VA in Roanoke received enough money to finance 201 direct home loan applications, which covered only the applications on record through April 30, 1959. Since Congress is being strongly urged to provide more GI home loan money for veterans in rural areas, we are hopeful that a great many of the 3700 Virginia veterans still on the waiting list will be reached before the program ends.

VETS—DISABILITY INCOME RIDER
Veterans Administration offices are receiving many inquiries about a new more liberal provision for total disability income which can be purchased in connection with GI insurance. National Service Life Insurance policies. The new-type rider was provided for by a law which became effective recently.

Veterans who hold GI policies may now add a provision which will pay an income of $10 per month for each $1,000 per face amount of their policies, if they become totally disabled from any cause before reaching the age of 60. For the majority of policyholders with the total allowed amount of $10,000 of NSLI, this means an income of $100 per month in case of such total disability.

The previous maximum amount under the disability rider was $5 per month for each $1,000. The premium for the benefit has been reduced by about one-half. Disability payments made under this type of coverage do not reduce the face amount of the basic policy which will be payable upon the veteran's death or on maturity of an endowment policy.

Payments under the rider begin after the total disability has existed for six consecutive months and continue for the duration of the disability, regardless of its length, VA said.

No payment may be made for disabilities incurred after age 60, and no premium charge is made for the benefit after that date. If the veteran is in good health and under age 60, the rider may be attached to any NSLI policy, except for a limited number of veterans sold to service-disabled veterans since April, 1951.

Physical examinations are required for those veterans whose age at their nearest birthday is 41 or more. These policyholders may be examined by their local physicians, provided the VA medical application forms are used. Veterans may obtain full information about the new insurance disability rider from their nearest VA office.

The premium cost of the rider, VA said, varies according to the policyholder's age, the type of policy and its face value. Those who have the older disability riders may get the new one at a very small extra cost.

Domiciliary care is an outgrowth of the Old Soldiers' Homes which were provided by the north for disabled Federal veterans and by the southern states for old Confederate soldiers. The purpose of domiciliary care as now furnished by the VA is to provide "homes" for veterans of the Spanish-American War, World Wars I and II, the Korean Conflict, and of peacetime service who meet the eligibility requirements. Eligibility is essentially the same as for VA hospital treatment, with the addition of the following rules for admission which must be met: (1) Veterans with war service must have disabilities which prevent them from earning a living, but not so severe as to require hospitalization. War veterans whose disabilities are not service connected must have an affidavit of inability to pay for their care. (2) Peacetime veterans must have been discharged with a disability incurred in line of duty, or to receiving compensation for a service-connected disability. (3) Veterans must be unable to earn a living as a result of their disability. (4) Veterans must be able to drive and take themselves care, and must be able to move around their own premises, and must not have adequate means of support.

Full care is provided, including medical treatment when needed. As a rule, transportation at government expense is provided only for the first admission.

The Veterans Administration is authorized by law to furnish artificial limbs, artificial eyes, braces, orthopedic shoes, trusses, hearing aids, and other necessary prosthetic and auxiliary items to eligible veterans.

The persons to whom these appliances may be issued are: (1) Veterans in need of such artificial limbs because of a service-connected disability or injury, or for a condition not service connected but which is determined to be aggravating the service-connected disability or injury. (2) Veterans receiving VA hospital treatment for whose appliances are required as part of the hospital treatment, or when appliances are determined necessary to complete hospital treatment and to effect discharge from the hospital. In fact, the hospital authorities can do almost anything necessary to get a veteran well, back on his job, or to make him self sustaining.

(3) Veterans pursuing courses of training to overcome the handicap of service-connected disabilities, when it is medically determined that appliances are necessary to prevent interruption of such training. (4) Retired personnel in need of artificial or sensory appliances if they are receiving disability compensation, or would be entitled to VA compensation except for receipt of retirement pay.

Eligible veterans who are supplied with artificial limbs, trusses, and other appliances are also entitled to fitting and training in the use of such aids.

VETS URGED TO KEEP MEDICAL APPOINTMENTS IN VA OUTPATIENT CLINICS

The Veterans Administration appealed to veterans to give it cooperation by keeping their appointments for medical examinations in VA outpatient clinics, when it is possible to do so, in order to send word in advance of their cancellations. VA said it is unfair to other veterans waiting to be examined and it is time-consuming and costly for the doctors and clerks when a veteran has an appointment for examination in a clinic but does not show up.

In one state, North Carolina, this has become a serious problem on an average day more than 10 per cent of veterans scheduled for examinations for compensation or pension have failed to keep their appointments. VA officials in North Carolina have appealed to veterans' service officers to help emphasize the problem.

VA urged veterans who have an appointment at any VA clinic, if they find they will not be able to keep the appointment, to notify the clinic at least 24 hours in advance. If they do this, VA said, it will be possible for some other veteran needing examination to take the appointment. There will be a saving in the cost of doctors' and clerks' time.

Veterans holding GI insurance policies were reminded by VA that the policies are for the protection of their families but that the policies themselves need protection. The protection meant is protection against the veteran's failure to pay his premiums on time when they fall due.

The grace period is a special protection device for policyholders to protect them and the policy in the event of some unforeseen emergency in any month when the policyholder can not manage to make his premium payment that month. VA cautioned, however, against policyholders falling into the habit of making every premium payment after the due date, that is, during the grace period. If they follow this practice, they may find themselves in a very tight spot when they forget to make a payment—then their policy will lapse. Since GI insurance policies are such valuable protection for a veteran's family, VA said, veterans ought to give the policy itself needed protection.

VA THREE-STEP PROGRAM FOR DISABLED VETERANS
The Veterans Administration has come out with a three-step program which it thinks will help disabled veterans make a smoother and quicker comeback to productive employment. The program applies largely to those whose disabilities incurred in service have caused long hospitalization.

The first step of the new program allows the veteran to begin his vocational training while he is still a patient in a VA hospital, and it is initiated when the veteran is able to leave the hospital part of the day to attend classes

Latin Teachers To Be In Demand Within 5 Years

Williamsburg—The "dead" language of Latin is providing a lively market for prospective teachers among secondary schools in Virginia, according to a survey recently completed by Dr. Talbot R. Selby of the department of ancient languages at the College of William and Mary.

Working in cooperation with Eta Sigma Phi, national honorary society in Greek and Latin, Dr. Selby found that the demand for Latin instructors on the secondary-school level will more than double during the next five years. By 1965, there will be more than 200 openings throughout the Commonwealth. High school administrators, teachers, and parents are becoming increasingly aware of the usefulness of Latin to those who intend to pursue further studies in such fields as the sciences, the modern languages and linguistics.

The alarming fact, Dr. Selby adds, is that Virginia's colleges and universities are simply not producing enough qualified personnel to meet the developing need for teachers. At the College of William and Mary, for instance, there are only two Latin majors in the graduating class, none in the junior, and six in the sophomore. Unless there is a decided increase in numbers the Commonwealth will experience a drastic shortage of secondary-school Latin teachers by the middle 1960's.

"The high percentage of returns we received to our questionnaire," Dr. Selby continues, "is concrete evidence that secondary-school administrators are concerned about the situation. Out of the 115 public school systems queried, 85 or 85 per cent, responded; out of the 34 private schools, 27 or 80 per cent."

Of instruction or job training. In the past most veterans were required to wait until after discharge from the hospital before commencing training.

The second step will allow veterans to start vocational training even when the training cannot be completed by the termination date for training set up by law. The VA has made arrangements with the Virginia Vocational Rehabilitation Division of the State Board of Education to pick up where the VA has to leave off. If the federal deadline intervenes. Previously disabled veterans could take only those courses which could be completed by the ending date of the law.

The third step will allow the VA to provide job finding assistance and personal counseling to disabled veterans at completion of their training. In addition to restoring self-reliance, vocational training pays off over the years because the veterans become tax payers.

ARAGONA COMMUNITY RECREATION CENTER, INC.
A meeting of the Aragona Community Recreation Center, Inc., was held on Wednesday evening, May 27, at which time there was a reading and study of the by-laws, and the fixing of annual dues was discussed. The resignation of Mr. Larry Marshall, as Chairman of the Board of Directors, was read and accepted by the Board. Marshall stated that his reason for resigning at this time was due to conflicting duties of other activities in which he is interested. The Ways and Means Committee announced plans for future activities, among which was a "Street Dance" which will be held to raise funds for the recreation center. Time, date and place will be announced later. Mr. Frank Beard was elected Chairman of the Board of Directors.

BLOODMOBILE VISIT TO ARAGONA VILLAGE

Mr. E. O. Meadows, chairman of the Aragona Village bloodmobile project, reported that on the visit of the bloodmobile May 22, there were seventy-five pints of blood donated. A considerable portion thereof was donated by students and teachers of the Princess Anne High School for the specific use of the captain of the Princess Anne Wrestling Team, Loy McLaughlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie D. McLaughlin, who reside at 308 Burlington Road, Princess Anne, Virginia. Loy is expected to undergo a heart operation early in June. Mr. Meadows expressed thanks and appreciation for those who so kindly come forward and donated blood in this project. He stated that there is always a great need for such donations and anyone who would like to donate blood and was unable to be present at last week's bloodmobile visit may do so at the Norfolk Chapter of the American Red Cross Tidewater Regional Blood Center in Norfolk, by telephoning MA 5-6791.

DAVIS CORNER VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT

It was reported that the Davis Corner Volunteer Fire Department answered three fire alarm calls during the month of May, one of which was quite serious but the quick thinking and prompt and correct action of a twelve year old scout prevented the loss of a home. Chief B. M. Williams proudly reports the receipt of their new ambulance for the use and benefit of residents in the Davis Corner area. Sale of their old ambulance was made to the Blackwater Fire Department for a very nominal sum and it is felt that this piece of emergency equipment will serve a very good purpose in an area of the county where it is sorely needed. The Blackwater Fire Department was organized about a year ago and from reports of its activities has been doing splendid work.

BASEBALL WARMING UP IN ARAGONA VILLAGE

This week's baseball activities start off with a bang. The Larason Cardinals were defeated by the Kempville Cardinals with a score of 2 to 0. Pony League USS CADMUS played the Tidewater Awnings team in a game that went for extra innings, with a win of 5 to 4 in favor of USS CADMUS. Manager Jim Stancil reports that the Aragona "Food Fair Indians" of the Pony Grad League, played "Thalia Pony Grad team and won with a score of 9 to 7. Jimmy Williamson executed some outstanding pitching with three hits with four times at bat. An excellent exhibition of pitching was given by Paris Burdge in the first three innings and by pitcher Joe Allen who relieved him in the fourth inning. This is the first year that either of these boys have made a try at the pitching job on the team but even a casual observation gives reason to believe that they'll develop into valuable assets to the pitching staff. In-field play by the Aragona team was sharp, including two snappy double plays. Doug Miller hit a home run for Thalia. The umpires for the game were from the Princess Anne High School Varsity Team and did a creditable job. Last Thursday, May 21, the Food Fair Indians opened the season by defeating the Bayside team with a score of 8 to 3. Ronnie Hytinen pitched the complete game striking out several Bayside batters.

NEW THUNDERBIRD MOTOR LODGE OPENS HERE

Thunderbird Motor Lodge Adds to Virginia Beach's New Look

Travel Dollars Great Force in Economic Look

Every time a motel room is unoccupied, the electric light company in your area loses at least ten cents in revenue. That is the way the director of one state's travel council dramatized the fact that tourists bring money to every segment of a community—not just the primary motels, hotels, restaurants, filling stations and amusement places.

The National Association of Travel Organizations, trade association of the United States travel industry, says the American traveler is now spending more than 25 billion dollars a year. The tourist spends his dollar something like this while traveling in the United States:

Food and refreshment.....27c
Transportation.....25c
Lodging.....21c
Retail purchases.....18c
Theater and other amusements.....7c
Tourist attractions.....6c
Laundry and other services.....5c

As soon as the traveler spends his dollar, the people with whom he spends it pass it on again. The tourist dollar the motel or hotel gets is distributed something like this:

Salaries and wages.....31c
Taxes and insurance.....16c
Interest on the mortgage.....12½c
Furniture and other replacements.....6c
Heat, light and power.....4c
Telephone.....3c

And shares also go to the local grocers, laundries, dry cleaners, etc. The average American tourist traveling in the United States spends about ten dollars a day, according to NATO. Any community that can attract a few dozen tourists a day throughout the year can generate the same financial benefit that would come if it obtained a small factory.

Knoxville, Tennessee, near the Great Smokies National Park, calls tourism "the biggest and most profitable business in town." The Knoxville Tourist Bureau convinced nearby farmers that the tourist business benefitted them, too, just by showing what Knoxville's tourists eat in a year. For example, tourists consumed over a 12 month period 521,000 dozen eggs, 2,923,000 quarts milk and cream, 2,909,000 pounds of meat, and 1,557,000 pounds of potatoes. To 400 tourist dollars, says NATO, you must spend dollars. What is the return per dollar spent? The Knoxville Tourist Bureau claims a whopping return of almost $1,000 for every dollar it spends in advertising and promotion. The Florida State Advertising Commission estimates the state gets $125 in tourist business

(of which the state gets $6.36 in direct taxes) for each dollar spent on advertising and promotion. The Black Hills and Badlands Association of South Dakota spent $7,000 in 1939 and got $98,000 tourists. It spent $98,800 in 1953 and got two million! It's obvious that travel advertising and promotion pays. Also, NATO says an area will make more money from the tourists it gets by providing better accommodations and attractions which will hold them longer. Kansas, formerly not considered a tourist state, began promoting the tourist business in 1952. The Empower Museum at Abilene helped Dodge City played up its historic frontier past. Festivals multiply. The average Kansas visitor stayed only one day in the state in 1952. Now, says the state's Industrial Development Commission, he stays two and a half days. Travel today, says NATO, con-their money in the fine structure of the Thunderbird Motor Lodge, and to the Architects who planned it, and to the Contractors who participated in its construction. It is a credit to our City, County and State, and I who, as much as any person, loves this Community of ours wish for it a great success to which it is entitled. Certainly anyone fortunate enough to avail themselves of its services will receive value for their patronage and do a great deal to upgrade the reputation of our Beach as a whole.

Tours very truly,
R. LEE PAGE.

Modern Tourist Facility Latest Addition to Beach's 'New Look'

The beautiful new Thunderbird Motor Lodge located at 35th street and the Ocean here is officially opening this weekend for its premiere season and is another modern hotel in Virginia Beach's "New Look."

Towering five stories with each guest room an oceanfront room. The Thunderbird Motor Lodge offers a departure from the usual. It contains 66 lovely guest rooms with five large, luxurious living room-bedroom combinations.

One of the most eye appealing features of the new motor lodge is the masonry block solar screen which extends from the first to the fifth floor. The screen has been laid a highly decorative pattern.

It can safely be said that The Thunderbird Motor Lodge leaves nothing for the guest to desire. Every detail has been taken care of for a most pleasant vacation.

The Thunderbird is complete in every detail. One of the most impressive sights to be found at this most modern tourist facility is the view from the dining area overlooking the attractive swimming pool with a full view of the ocean beyond and through an arcade.

The Thunderbird grounds range almost 200 feet on the Ocean at the corner of 35th street. The building is situated on the Ocean side of the property with a huge parking area attractively laid out of the Atlantic avenue side of the building.

Another nice feature is the heated swimming pool which is located behind the main building and just next to the dining room.

The colorful, new Thunderbird is completely air-conditioned and offers television and radio to its guests. The motor lodge will remain open the year 'round.

The unusual building also contains an elevator and offers motel as well as hotel service. The management boasts that the motor lodge is your "home away from home."

Another unusual feature of the Thunderbird is the roof garden which extends the length of the building. A patio with beach furniture is located at the south end of the swimming pool.

The dining room is called the Epicurian Room and features outstanding food prepared by an expert staff.

Manager of the Thunderbird is Hoyt Camps, who also served as an advisor during the construction of the new motor lodge.

Historic Tour Unveiled by Virginia Travel Council

Richmond—An historic tour designed to peak the interest and stimulate the hobbies of every member of the vacation-bent family has been unveiled by the Virginia Travel Council. Here Junior may learn history at first hand in a painless manner, while Mother and Dad inspect architectural features and priceless heirlooms in some of America's most famous houses.

This tour comprises the great ancestral Tidewater homes which dot both sides of the equally famous James River, in Tidewater Virginia. Such names as Brandon, Berkeley, Shirley, and Sherwood Forest denote the homes of patriots, presidents, and others who set their mark in our history. Here in this "Cradle of America" you will find the first plantation in the New World, Shirley, the home of the Carter family since 1723. Now owned by a ninth generation Carter, you may view original family portraits, silver and furnishings. Berkeley Plantation boasts a number of "firsts": ancestral home of two United States Presidents, site of the first Thanksgiving in America in 1619; "Tape" was composed here in 1802, when General McClellan, Commander-in-Chief of the Virginia Army, used this mansion as headquarters. This event is commemorated on July 4 each year in colorful ceremonies open to visitors.

William Byrd II, of Westover, left his name and mark on many of the River Plantations, but none more romantically than at Evelynston. This plantation was named for the beautiful Evelyn Byrd, whose father gave this tract of land to his wife, Lucy Parke. Owned by the Ruffin family for more than a century, the present Evelynston houses a rare collection of antiques, including an original Duncan Phyfe dining table nearly 200 years old.

The young visitor to these Plantations will be delighted to find that not all of the important early Colonials lived in giant, colonial houses, with the James River as their "Main Street," and they will be thrilled with a visit to charming Belle Air. This early American frame house is unique in Twentieth Century Virginia. Built in 1670, it retains all of the simplicity in which most early settlers lived. Sympathetically restored by a young Virginia couple, it points out the possibilities that exist in early American houses for gracious living today.

One of the earliest political campaign slogans was coined in the Presidential campaign of two native Virginians, neighbors from the same county, William Henry Harrison of Berkeley, and John Tyler of Sherwood Forest, ran on the slogan of "Tippecanoe and Tyler Too." When Harrison died shortly after his inauguration, his Vice President, John Tyler, succeeded to the Presidency. After Tyler's term, he came home to Charles City County and lived at Sherwood Forest, still the home of the Tyler family. Every subtitle who visits this interesting home comes away with envy of those who are privileged to dance in the unusual ballroom with arched ceiling.

Future Officers
Begin Little Creek
Training June 4

Annual amphibious training and orientation for more than 2,000 future officers from service academies, colleges and universities will begin at Little Creek Amphibious Base June 4 with the arrival of U. S. Naval Academy Midshipmen. It has been announced by Rear Adm. William K. Romero, commander of the Atlantic Fleet Amphibious Training Command.

Rear Adm. George C. Towser, Commander Amphibious Force II, U. S. Atlantic Fleet, is in overall charge of the summer training. More than 300 Naval Academy Midshipmen will be trained ashore for 14 days and then embark in amphibious type ships for four days. The first phase will be climaxed with a full scale amphibious assault on the beaches at Camp Pendleton the morning of June 15. This group will depart on June 18 and 19.

The second group, approximately 400 U. S. Military Academy Cadets, will arrive June 17 for a five-day naval orientation tour. They will visit naval installations and ships of the Atlantic Fleet, observe the amphibious assault at Camp Pendleton on June 18, and embark in the attack transport U.S.S. Rockledge (APA 228) for at-sea indoctrination enroute to Bayonne, N.J., on June 22.

Some 700 Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps Midshipmen from colleges and universities will arrive July 7 for approximately 35 days training, including 10 ashore and four days at sea. This period will be climaxed on July 20 with an assault on the beaches at Camp Pendleton. The NROTC Midshipmen will depart July 31 for Corpus Christi, Texas, where they will continue training in naval aviation.

Both the Naval Academy and NROTC Midshipmen will be integrated with a Marine battalion landing team during the at-sea periods and will take part in the actual amphibious assaults. The general public is invited to witness the landings at Camp Pendleton.

Social life for the future officers will be highlighted by a formal ball in honor of each group shortly after their arrival here. Young ladies from the Tidewater and outlying areas have been invited to attend.

to come to the Old Dominion at that special time may enjoy this attraction. The mansion, bullet-proofed from the guns of Union troops who tried off vainly looking for concealed treasures, is not open to the public. Original and grand were the basis of most of these huge estates, and in the Seventeenth Century a grant to Colonel John Ward comprised the plantation known as Willow Hill. The present home, erected on the site of the original which burned in 1840 was restored a hundred years later. Here the visitor may observe several gulls which caused the owner to build a "flying Dutchman," which in themselves are little gems of architecture.

In addition to history, these great Plantations provide a lesson for those who today are interested in agriculture. Ranging in acreage in the thousands, most are devoted to cattle raising and general farming on a major scale on these Plantations.

On May 22 the Virginia Travel Council conducted a tour of these historic Plantations for travel interests in the Tidewater. Virginia Beach area. Commentators from both Richmond and Fredericksburg also were guests of the Council for the tour.

THE Thunderbird MOTOR LODGE

Solite lightweight aggregate concrete was used in columns, beams and T-Slabs in the new Thunderbird Motor Lodge. Solite lightweight masonry units were also used in the building.

Just completed, the Thunderbird Motor Lodge is Virginia Beach's newest modern hotel facility. The five story building includes sixty-three guest rooms, five of which are large, luxurious living room-bedroom combinations. On the first floor are the lounge, office and dining room. A covered dining and dancing terrace overlooks the pool and the ocean, and a roof garden extends for the length of the building. Parking areas for all rooms are provided.

The design of the building includes many innovations, both in basic structure and the use of materials. A masonry block solar screen, extending from the first to the fifth floor, first catches the eye. The screen is made of single-core white masonry units, laid in a decorative pattern. Besides adding to the appearance of the building, it screens the service walkways from the exterior and protects the walkways from sun, wind and rain.

The Thunderbird is one of the highest buildings of its kind in the country, and therefore a departure from the usual. It makes use of precast concrete T-Slabs for floors and roof, supported on precast concrete beams and precast post tensioned concrete columns. Columns and beams were fabricated on the job site. Concrete T-Slabs were manufactured by Southern Block and Pipe Corporation of Norfolk.

In building, columns and beams were lifted into place two floors at a time, after which the T-Slabs were lifted into place. This method of construction is the quickest and most economical yet devised for a fireproof building. In using this method, the masons were able to begin their work early, as were the mechanical trades. The building was actually closed in floor by floor before the roof slabs were erected.

Solite lightweight aggregate was used in all columns, beams and T-Slabs to lighten the dead load of the structure, thus producing minimum size horizontal and vertical structural members.

Entirely constructed of concrete materials, the building will offer lasting beauty and low maintenance despite severe winds and salt spray. It has been proved through the years that concrete is the most economical and durable construction material for beach areas. This building will retain its beauty through the years.

Garden Club of Virginia Meets

Highlight of the 39th annual meeting of the Garden Club of Virginia, held in Winchester this week, was the report of Historic Garden Week chairman, Mrs. George H. Flowers, Jr., of Richmond. Gross receipts were $43,972, the largest in the project's 26 year history. All shrines in the state drew larger numbers of visitors than in previous years.

The Winchester-Clarke and Little Garden Clubs were joint hostesses for the three-day meeting which was attended by 119 delegates. Two directors at large were elected to succeed Mrs. Fontaine Scott of Lynchburg and Mrs. Hallowell Dickinson, of Richmond. They were Mrs. Wyatt A. Williams, of Orange and Mrs. J. Clifford Miller, Jr., of Richmond.

Present from Virginia Beach were Mrs. Nathan Bundy, a director-at-large, Mrs. Edward M. Hardy and Mrs. Peter Oley Miller.

On May 11, 1943, an amphibious force led by Rear Admiral F. W. Rockwell captured the Japanese stronghold of Attu in the Aleutians, thus wrecking Japan's hope for conquest of Alaska.

TRECOM To Demonstrate New Vessel in June

Fort Eustis — The United States Army will take the wraps off its newest and largest vessel, the 339-foot Beach Discharge Lighter, "Lt. Col. John U. D. Page," during a formal showing and "Open House" at Fort Eustis. It has been announced by Col. Vance R. Beak, Commanding Officer, U. S. Army Transportation Research and Engineering Command.

Plans have been formulated to have the vessel berth at Fort Eustis 3rd Port during the period 5-8 June. USA TRECOM plans call for a military display on June 5th. Civic dignitaries, Government contractors and special guests will be on hand June 6th, with the general public invited to observe and tour the vessel on June 7th.

The result of years of research in the field of amphibious operations, and with an eye to future combat concepts, the "Page" is designed to fulfill a need for moving vehicles from ship-to-shore over unprepared beaches. In this connection, the "Page" is a roll-on/roll-off vessel, receiving its vehicles over a stern ramp from an ocean freighter, moving onto the beach and discharging its vehicles through a special bow ramp.

Named after an Army officer, who was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor (Posthumously), the "Page" has no rudders or screws. It is propelled by two six-bladed variable axis propellers that provide thrust and steering. The vessel is highly maneuverable, can sail sideways as well as forward and reverse, is especially adept in navigating shallow rivers and coastal waters, as well as being self-deliverable overseas.

In addition to its new type propulsion unit, the "Page" has a pusher type hydraulic ram located in the forefoot of the vessel that gives unequalled capability in beaching and beach retracting operations.

The vessel is manned by seven Army warrant officers, and 24 enlisted men. The master of all officers are licensed mariners and have vast experience on all types of vessels.

The demonstration promises to be one of the largest in the Tidewater area and follows a policy of the U. S. Army of keeping the public informed.

COUNCIL OF GARDEN CLUBS SPONSORS "PROJECT PETUNIA"

Mrs. J. W. Field, Jr., president of the Council of Garden Clubs, announces that the Council of Garden Clubs of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County in cooperation with the city of Virginia Beach is sponsoring "Project Petunia." The City has purchased and planted 1,000 petunias on 17th Street and Atlantic Avenue. The women of the Council of Garden Clubs have endeavored to enlist the cooperation of all occupants along those two streets and have asked that they plant Velvet white and Camanche red petunias. Hill-top Nursery will sell these petunias at a discount to those participating in this project.

Virginia Beach can be a very clean and pretty city and this project could mean that our city will be infinitely more attractive to tourists and residents this summer. Plant these petunias now and join in the fun of making this a garden spot for the summer.

If you need any more information call Mrs. John R. Anderson, GA 8-6114 or Mrs. Arthur Winder, co-chairmen of beautification for Council of Garden Clubs.

Fall Cruise Set to Leave Norfolk November 28

A fall cruise to Bermuda, the Caribbean and South America leaving Norfolk on Saturday, November 28, and returning Friday, Dec. 11, was announced today by the Virginia Cruise Corporation, Richmond.

The Virginia Cruise Corp., a non-profit organization, was formed in 1951 to promote passenger service for Virginia ports. Since that time seven cruises to the Caribbean, one to the Mediterranean, and two tours to Europe have been operated. "They have been distinctive and have become increasingly popular with Virginians," Col. W. T. Watkins, of Newport News, president of the cruise corporation said.

This Fall's Virginia Cruise to the Caribbean will sail from Norfolk aboard the Statendam, of the Holland-America Line, on Saturday, Nov. 28. The itinerary, according to Colonel Watkins, includes a 22-hour visit in Hamilton, Bermuda, for the closing festivities of the 350th anniversary celebration on the island and stops at St. Thomas, Virgin Islands; La Guaira (Caracas) Venezuela; the quaint Dutch island of Aruba and Port-au-Prince, Haiti.

Virginia Cruises are operated as port promotion projects. Generally the cruise party is led by the Governor and First Lady of Virginia or by his appointed representative. Special events ashore are arranged for the Virginia Cruise parties, which generally have exclusive occupancy of the ship. Chaplains of three faiths conduct daily and weekly services aboard. Forum discussions are held on subjects of general interest and passengers are well briefed on what to see, do and buy in each port before landing.

The Statendam is a 23,000-ton ocean liner and is equipped with indoor and outdoor swimming pools and a complete theatre.

Passengers from other states are welcome aboard these Virginia Cruises, Col. Watkins said. No distinction is made between Virginians and non-Virginians. During the past operation of these cruises,

"from 20 to 30 per cent of the passengers booked have been from states other than Virginia," Col. Watkins stated.

Mrs. Roberta Aiken, 111 North Fifth Street, Richmond, Va., or authorized travel agents, have information on the Virginia Cruise.

380-Year-Old Bible Now in William & Mary Library

Williamsburg — A 380-year-old Bible that at one time may have belonged to the family of John Rolfe, husband of Pocahontas, has come into the possession of the library of the College of William and Mary.

The volume was presented to the library by Mrs. E. T. Comly of Morrisville, Pa.—who reports that, according to family tradition, it was given to her great-grandfather, the Rev. Seymour Landon, to be held in custody until such time as it could be claimed by the Rolfe kinsman to whom it had been bequeathed. The gentleman never returned to pick up his inheritance, and four generations of Landons have held the book in trust.

Learning of the extensive collection of Bibles of prominent Virginia families owned by the College of William and Mary and of the portraits of Rolfe descendants displayed in the Sir Christopher Wren Building, Mrs. Comly decided that the library was the proper permanent depository for the book. She discussed the matter with Mr. James A. Servies, college librarian, while in Williamsburg for an antiquities forum this spring, and made arrangements to return to the campus in order formally to present the volume.

Printed in England in 1580, the Bible contains a bookplate clearly imprinted with the Rolfe name and bearing a coat of arms very similar to, although not identical with, that used by John Rolfe of Jamestown.

Mr. Servies, who had made a careful comparative study of the two coats of arms, is quite sure that they come from a common family. Both contain a crest of a lion's head and also a divided shield, the upper third of which consists of three annulets on a solid-colored field. The principal difference between them is that the annulets on the bookplate are in black, gold, and white on a field of red while those on the John Rolfe arms are all in white against a black background.

Just when the volume came into the possession of the family is, however, much less certain. The book was printed in 1580 by Christopher Barker of London; it was rebound probably in the 1700's. The bookplate is pasted on the inside of the binding, and it is possible that the volume was with the Rolfe family in the eighteenth century.

Mr. Servies, who has placed the Bible in the library's rare book collection, feels that the volume is interesting from a religious as well as from a historical point of view. The text is based on the Geneva Bible of 1560, a translation completed by a group of English expatriate scholars in Switzerland during the reign of Catholic Queen Anne. Until the publication of the King James version, the Geneva Bible was the foremost translation in general use by Protestants. It was the first to make use of marginal notes (many of them anti-Catholic and anti-monarchical); the first to be divided into chapter and verse; and the first to be printed with Roman rather than with Old English type. The particular edition presented to the library differs from the original in that it includes the Apocrypha and several concordances and alphabetical lists of places and names omitted from the 1560 edition. There is a possibility, according to Servies, that several of the sections may have been added to the volume when it was rebound in the 1700's—or, if they were all included in the book as it appeared in 1580, that they were rearranged during the rebinding process.

The library at the College of William and Mary, known for its resources in early American history, has a collection of hundreds of Bibles from prominent Virginia families.

The common type of depth charge used by destroyers weighs from 300 to 600 pounds and resembles 25 to 50 gallon oil drums.

Crab Pots in Lynnhaven River Hamper Shipping

Complaints that crab pots are being placed in the Eastern and Western Branches of the Lynnhaven River so as to seriously endanger navigation are being registered with the Army Engineers, according to Col. J. D. Snow, Norfolk District, Army Engineer.

Colonel Snow said that Federal regulations governing the use of fishing structures, which include crab pots, are not being followed by some of the crab pot operators. "I do not believe that they are willfully violating these regulations," he said, "but rather, are unfamiliar with them." The Federal regulations provide that, "In localities where fishing structure limits are not established, such structures shall not be placed in dredged or natural channels or other lanes used by watercraft, or within 200 feet of the edge of any dredged channel. A clear fairway at least 200 feet wide shall be maintained from navigable channels to establish boat landings. Such structures shall not be placed within 500 feet of any aid to navigation other than fishing structure buoys. The approach to the mouth of any navigable tributary or to the mouth of any navigable branch of any tributary shall be left free and unobstructed. Where fishing structure limits are not established, this free and unobstructed approach shall lie along the channel usually followed by boats and shall have a width of not less than one-third of the width of the mouth of the tributary or branch. Within the navigable tributaries where fishing structure limits are not established, a channel in deep water of at least one-third of the total width of the waterway at the locality shall be left free and unobstructed."

Your Social Security

By EARL W. TRINKLE
Field Representative

Question: I have just retired from the company where I have been employed for many years. I wish to apply for social security benefits, but find I have lost the card showing my social security number. Will this interfere with my applying for payments?

Answer: No indeed. Bring some record of your correct number to your social security office right away. Your company will have a record of your number. Even if they don't, your social security office could obtain the number for you from their main accounting office in Baltimore.

Q. I have frequently read that people applying for social security payments should bring proof of their recent earnings. Why is this? I thought my employer sent in reports of what he paid me.

A. While it is true that your employer sends in reports of your earnings every three months in most cases, it requires a little time for the Internal Revenue office to process these reports, and a little time for our accounting office in Baltimore to credit those earnings to your account. Therefore, there is a time lag of about 6 months from the time your employer reports, until your account is credited. If you are self-employed, the time lag is longer because you only report self-employment income once a year.

Q. Is there any way to speed up my claim for social security payments when I come in to make a claim next month?

A. Yes, you can speed up the processing of your claim by bringing proof of your age with you. Frequently, proof of age is needed before your claim can be sent in for payment, and if you will obtain this proof now, it will save time later. Old documents such as birth certificates, marriage records, insurance policies, etc., can be used. So look around to see what you have.

Q. What proofs about my recent earnings will I have to bring when I retire and file for my social security benefits in the near future?

A. If you work for wages, it is a good idea to bring a copy of your last year's W-2 withholding form which your employer gave you. If you are self-employed, you should bring a copy of last year's Income Tax Return (1040) and Schedule C or P, and the cancelled check or receipt showing you paid the social security tax.

Q. When I reach age 65 and retire next month I will file for social security benefits for myself and my two minor children. My wife who is much younger will file on the basis of having these minor children in her care. What proofs will we need to bring when we file?

Births at Virginia Beach Hospital

Tuesday, May 19 — Baby boy, Mr. and Mrs. Edward O. Elba, Route 1, Box 192, Princess Anne, Virginia.

A. You should bring your social security number, proof of your age and proof of your recent earnings. You should also bring your children's birth certificates. If possible, your wife should come along with you.

Q. Will I need any proofs other than proof of my age and recent earnings for my social security retirement claim? What about my wife and minor children?

A. Sometimes other proofs are needed. The exact proofs needed will depend on the circumstances. If your wife is filing at the same time, proof of marriage may be needed. If you or your wife were married previously, proof of the termination of the former marriage may be required. When there are minor children, their birth certificates should be brought in. If any of the children are adopted children, a copy of the adoption papers would be necessary.

The National Outlook

From the point of view of final safety there are no securities better than those of the United States Government. There is no question but that at maturity they will be paid in full. And currently the rate of return, four per cent or a little better, is good for a top grade investment. Nevertheless, the market for United States securities is having a hard time.

Consequent Bonds Lose Appeal
For example, government bonds have been making new lows almost every week recently and several issues are in the low eighties. In the latest Treasury financing, an offer for exchange of maturing securities, some 31 per cent of the holders selected to take cash rather than new certificates yielding 4.05 per cent. This was the second highest rate of attrition in recent years. In May 1953 there was 32 per cent attrition, and last January there was a refinancing in which the attrition was 22 per cent. At that time the Treasury had to return to the market almost immediately to replenish its cash holdings. This time the Treasury has announced that such replenishment will not be necessary.

What are the reasons for such difficulties? First is the widespread expectation of inflation. This, perhaps, is best shown by the behavior of the stock market. While the bond market has been making new lows, the stock market has been making new highs. This is normal procedure in the face of inflation. The reason is that common stocks are supposed to give at least some protection against inflation; bonds do not. In other words, stocks are presumed to rise with the price level and bonds do not. Second, the volume of necessary Treasury borrowing is enormous. This year the Federal Government is running a deficit of some $13 billion and there still is fear of another deficit next year. Throwing any such total of securities into the market is certain to make interest rates advance. When interest rates advance it is inevitable that outstanding issues decline in price. This is not a reflection on the soundness of the security; it is a purely mathematical result. The extent of the decline will depend upon the maturity of the issue—the longer the maturity the greater the decline—and that has been taking place in the market for many months.

Third, the demand for credit from other sources has been increasing. Consumers are buying more on time, business is borrowing more to help it finance improved sales and higher inventories, and states and localities are offering more securities to carry out their spending programs. In the aggregate these demands total more than current savings, and that puts pressure on interest rates. The Federal Reserve System could ease this situation by pumping more reserves into the commercial banking system, but that would enhance the possibility of inflation, and there's no reason to assume the Reserve System will move in this direction.

Finally, under the law there is a limit as to how high an interest rate the Federal Government can pay. Specifically, on any security of five years or longer maturity it can not offer more than 4 1/2 per cent. Of course this law could be changed, but that would not be of any great help. The total government debt at present is about $285 billion, a substantial proportion of this is medium and long term. If the Treasury were to offer a higher interest rate all of these issues would decline in price—decline enough to bring their yield to that of the new issue.

This means that it would not solve the problems of the government bond market to increase the rate of interest. What, then, is the method for eliminating this headache?

We Must End Fear of Inflation. It is fairly clear cut. We must balance the budget and thereby make it possible for the Treasury to stop borrowing so much. We must have basic tax rate reform in order to encourage, and make possible, a large volume of saving. We must put an end to the expectation of inflation. To do this it is necessary for the Federal Reserve System to continue to hold a tight rein on credit expansion, and wage increases which lift the costs of production must not be granted.

This is an entirely feasible program. It will take courage and statesmanship but it can be carried out if there is the will on the part of the public, the Congress, business management, and labor leaders.

Colonial Stores Sales Increase Over Last Year

Colonial Stores Incorporated Sales for fifth period ended May 16, 1959, were $34,442,883. Four-week corresponding period of preceding year were $33,267,133, an increase of 3.54%.

Sales for year-to-date (20 weeks) were $169,624,908, compared with $170,969,067, for the same period of the year 1958, a decrease of 0.8%.

A company spokesman pointed out that higher sales for the fifth four-week period, compared with last year, were part of an increasingly favorable sales picture at Colonial.

"Sales for our second four-week period ending February 21 were 3.7 behind 1958. Third-period sales were 1% less than during the comparable period a year earlier and during the fourth period of 1959 we missed equalling last year's figures by only three tenths of one per cent."

While a number of factors could affect what appears to be a definite upward sales trend, we are increasingly confident that current merchandising and operating policy is proving successful.

East Carolina Alumni Form Buccaneer Society

Alumni of East Carolina College formed the Society of Buccaneers Friday night at a banquet held in the new cafeteria on the campus.

The new organization has the purpose of aiding the college and its former students among men closer together in fellowship.

Dr. Leo W. Jenkins, vice president and dean of instruction, presided at the meeting. Dr. Robert Malt, registrar, pronounced the invocation. Delam Driver, senior from Richmond, Va., brought greetings from the students to alumni.

A program of music was presented under the direction of Herbert L. Carter of the faculty. Sam Bundy, principal of the Farmville High School, chief speaker of the evening, entertained the group with a humorous talk. He was introduced by President John D. Mesack of East Carolina College.

A "This Is Your Life" program, directed by Mahlon Coles of the college staff, unfolded the life of Jim Johnson, principal of the Virginia Beach High School. Mr. Johnson is an alumnae, former staff member, former member of the Alumni Council, and member of the Athletic Council of the college. He was selected as Chief Buccaneer of the year by those attending the banquet.

Plans for the future include two meetings each year—one the Saturday night following the Homecoming Game in the fall and one in the spring. The Chief Buccaneer, to be selected each spring by a committee of the club, is the only officer of the group.

FORT STORY TELLINGS

VIRGINIA MILITARY RESERVATION HOSTS BOY SCOUT CAMPOREE

Approximately 250 Boy Scouts attended a camporee here this weekend. The camporee was held at the personal decision of Gov. Lindsay Almond who said that the importance of the activity merited the use of the National Guard installation.

Major General Shephard Crump, Adjutant General of the Virginia National Guard recommended that the reservation be used for the camporee and Gov. Almond approved his recommendation.

Religious services were held Sunday morning by the chaplains from Fort Story. Lt. Col. M. Turner, Protestant chaplain had no difficulty in arriving for his service, but Major Francis Mifcovic, Story's Catholic chaplain has a tight schedule and only had one free hour in the morning.

In order to get him to Pendleton and back to Story in time for his next Mass, Capt. Floyd Mercer, of the Virginia Air National Guard, flew Chaplain Mifcovic from Story to the campsite and returned him to Story with time to spare. The Mass was said from the rear of a station wagon.

Director of the camporee was Spencer Lott, District Chairman of Virginia Beach, Princess Anne County.

Assisting Lott were Capt. Joseph Horn, USN; Capt. William Sildell, USN; Lt. Col. Robert M. Wyant, USA; Dan Hunt, District Commissioner, BSA and Andy Sabol, executive secretary of the area Boy Scouts.

IRANIAN OFFICERS VISIT STORY

A major general and three colonels from the Iranian Army visited Fort Story last week to observe amphibious cargo training operations here.

The three officers observed the BARCs (98 ton amphibious vehicles), the LCR (Landing Craft Retrievers), the Cargo Training Area, the landing and the motor pools of the 10th and 14th Transportation Battalions. They received briefings on each, and were given a ride on a BARC.

OFFICERS WIVES HONORED

Officers and chairmen of the Officers' Wives Club were honored at a luncheon Tuesday given by outgoing president, Mrs. Joe H. Morgan.

New officers will be elected before July 1 and go into office at the start of the new fiscal year.

CHAPLAIN TAKEN TO SCOUTS BY PLANE

Major Francis, Story's Catholic Chaplain, was scheduled to say Mass for the boy scouts at a camporee on Camp Pendleton Sunday, but Father Mifcovic's program that morning was just too tight to make it down and back between services on post.

The National Guard solved the problem by sending a plane to Fort Story and picking up Maj. Mifcovic. He went to Pendleton, said Mass and was flown back to Story, all in less than an hour.

Five Chinese Major Generals and two Colonels visited Fort Story Friday to observe training technique and equipment. The group came to Story from Fort Eustis where they had also been observing.

The officers who visited Story were Major General L. Chen, Chief of Staff, Chinese Armed Forces; C. Wu, Army; I. Wang, Engineers; T. Ts'ai, Signal Corps; H. Chang, Transportation and Colonels M. Ho, Infantry; W. Hsu, Infantry and C. Cheng, Engineers. While visiting the BARCs, General Chang had a chance to renew acquaintances with the men who had taught the Chinese in the use of the BARCs this year.

Rating Days Held At Great Neck

The Great Neck School of Horsemanship annual rating days for the spring term took place Friday, May 22 commencing at 2:30 p.m. and on Saturday, May 23 at 10 a.m. at the stables on Great Neck Road, London Bridge.

The following private schools were rated on Friday: Country Day School for Girls, Friends School, Everett School of Virginia Beach and Graham's School and Garrison-Williams School of Norfolk. The Special Advanced Group were also rated on Friday. All public school students were rated on Saturday.

Achievement awards were presented to the following students: Country Day School, Miss Dorothy Howard; Friends School, Miss Linda Taylor; Everett's School, Miss Mary Motley; Garrison-Williams School, Miss Merrick Twohy; Graham's School, Miss Pamela Hyne; Advanced Group, Miss Barbara Fidell; and public schools, Miss Ann Weart.

Members of the 522nd BARC Platoon had spent five months in Taiwan teaching the Chinese. General Chang was in charge of the terminal where the training took place. He greeted each soldier individually and remembered most of their names.

May Is Blanket Storage Month

Moths like wool but tend to shun fresh, clean blankets. So for the humid, moth-thriving summer months, laundresses should make sure that their blankets are properly laundered.

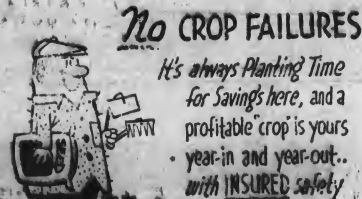

The traditional dirt-eliminating laundry—scrubbing and hot water—are taboo for cleaning blankets. Both of these factors will lead to fading or matting of the fabric.

Special equipment and controlled formulas and temperatures that assure cleanliness without shrinking or matting are used by professional laundries. In addition, blankets undergo a mothproofing process in the last rinse. Blankets are then brushed or "carded" after they have dried. The carding raises the nap so that air can get between the fibers to make the blankets softer and warmer.

Professional laundries also aid the homemaker during the spring storage season by returning freshly laundered and mothproofed blankets in sealed cellophane containers. According to American Institute of Laundering textile experts, homemakers should place their clean blankets on top of other stored items. This saves the blankets from being flattened, making them less apt to lose their resiliency and warmth-giving qualities.

The MIXING BOWL.. IT'S Fun TO COOK

By LUCIE CLARK
SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food facts and tidbits... practical, down-to-earth recipes that stand the test of time and pocketbook, read the "Mixing Bowl" by Lucie Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

1 teaspoon powdered thyme
10 1/2 ounce can beef consommé
1 bay leaf water
1 tablespoon flour
2 tablespoons prepared mustard
1 cup currant jelly

Place the steaks on a cutting board. With a meat hammer or the edge of a heavy saucepan, pound a tablespoon of flour into each side of the steaks. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

Heat butter in a heavy skillet. Add onions. Stir and cook over low heat until onions are tender. In a large bowl, combine bread crumbs, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon pepper, thyme and cooked onion. Spread stuffing over one of the steaks. Top with the other steak. To hold the steaks together, insert wooden picks perpendicularly through the outside edges of the two steaks and weave a string in a crisscross manner around the steaks between the picks.

Brown the steaks on both sides in the skillet. Add 1/4 cup of consommé and the bay leaf. Cover tightly and cook over low heat about 1 hour or until meat is tender. Check during cooking to be sure skillet is not dry. If so, add more consommé. When meat is done, remove it to a warm platter.

To make herb gravy, combine the meat drippings left in the skillet and the remaining consommé, with enough water to make 1 1/2 cups of liquid. Mix 3 tablespoons of the liquid with 1 tablespoon of flour. Combine flour mixture with the remaining liquid mixture in the skillet. Cook and stir over low heat until gravy is thick and smooth. Serve gravy over each portion of steak and stuffing.

Now for some other tempting suggestions:
Deviled Eggs
1 dozen hard-cooked eggs
2 teaspoons vinegar
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon pepper

Spring is the season when a new recipe is as important to menu planning as a pretty new hat is to the wardrobe. Newspapers and recipe files are searched with care for just the right recipe. The object is a different dish that will please the family. Fork-tender veal steaks with a savory stuffing is a combination to serve with confidence. It will be requested again and again.

Veal has a delicate flavor and very little natural fat covering. When buying, the guide to highest quality is the top brand of the world's leading meat packer. Veal round steak is coated with flour and cooked with slow moist heat. Martha Logan, well-known economist, suggests consommé as the liquid for the stuffed veal steaks.

Instead of rolling up the stuffing inside the steak as is sometimes done, the two veal steaks are stacked one on top of the other with the stuffing in between. Wooden picks inserted perpendicularly through the outside edges are placed with string to hold the meat and stuffing securely in place. The herb seasoned drippings from the stuffed veal steaks combined with consommé are the basis for a delightful herb gravy. Prepared mustard and current jelly are added just before serving time to make a truly distinctive dish.

Stuffed Veal Steaks with Herb Gravy
Yield: 6 servings
2 veal round steaks, (2 to 3 lbs.)
cut 1 inch thick
1 cup flour
1 cup salt
1 teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 cup finely chopped onion
4 cups fresh bread crumbs
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon pepper

1 teaspoon prepared mustard
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
3 tablespoons mayonnaise
Peel eggs and cut in halves lengthwise. Remove yolks, put through sieve, or mash with fork. Add remaining ingredients to egg yolks, beat until smooth. Fill egg white halves. Sprinkle with paprika. If you'd like put egg yolk mixture into pastry bag and fill egg white halves. Makes attractive finish.

If you'd like a delightful casserole made with deviled eggs, try this one.

Devil eggs as suggested or by your favorite recipe.
Place in casserole—over them pour a medium cream sauce over eggs. Sprinkle with buttered bread crumbs. Bake in 350 degree oven until bubbling.
If you like a cheesy sauce add 1 cup grated sharp cheese to your cream sauce and thoroughly blend in before pouring over deviled eggs.

If you're going picnicking over Memorial Day, deviled eggs will add much to your lunch—Bye now.

YOU: But aren't you forgetting the oven?

HOME ADVISOR: Oh, a Built-In Electric Oven-Broiler takes no floor space at all! It fits into the wall or a room divider. And you can have it at just the right cooking height for you.

And here are some more space savers. An Electric Dishwasher built-in under the sink top. An Electric Food Freezer that slides out like a drawer from a kitchen counter. S&H Green Stamp

Catalog Out

J. M. Scully, Norfolk branch manager for the Sperry & Hutchinson Company, announced distribution here of the new S&H Green Stamp Merchandise Catalog. The company's 65th catalog, Mr. Scully said, lists twice the number of items as in previous years. More than 1,000 items of merchandise are shown, including an all-electric kitchen, six patterns of sterling silver and 50 decorative items, all new. The catalog has 84 pages, 60% more pages than in previous editions.

Shown in the catalog are products made by manufacturers in this state and available for redemption in 500 S&H Green Stamp Redemption Stores across the nation.

Mr. Scully said that the catalog is reported to be the largest single business publication printing order in the nation. "The current S&H Catalog," he added, "indicates to growth of our business. It's being made available to the 23 million families—almost half the families in the United States—who now use S&H Green Stamps, distributed by more than 60,000 merchants."

Upon due reflection, Mr. Edwin Charles decided to give full credit to a pupil for his answer to an arithmetic problem.

The question: "If your father sold 1500 bu. of grain for $200 a bu., what would he get?"

The answer: "A new car."

FARMERS LIKE THE LOOKS OF RED CLOVER

Princess Anne County dairymen and beef producers like the looks of Red Clover on John Potter's farm Wednesday at the Red Clover Field Day.

Farmers stood knee-deep in Red Clover ready to be cut and observed that this was a splendid field of hay. Several farmers estimated the yield of this Red Clover crop being near three tons per acre. The Red Clover as it was observed Wednesday, was in the one-fourth bloom stage and ready to be harvested.

Several farmers made comments about the quality and the yield of the Red Clover hay.

After looking at the field of hay we observed some hay that had been cured and baled. One was straight Red Clover hay that had been harvested by Joe Hershberger, was of excellent quality being very leafy and very green. This was field cured hay and of excellent quality. Farmers had an opportunity of also observing a bale of hay that had been produced by George Waller. This was a combination of Red Clover and Orchard Grass.

After looking at the hay we then went to another field of Red Clover that was just recently seeded. This was very young and we could determine that an excellent stand was going to be present.

Several comments were made by farmers about the use of Red Clover on their farms. Joe Hershberger says that Red Clover does not have to be pampered like Alfalfa does and cows will hold their weight better while eating Red Clover than they will on Alfalfa. Jerry Yoder, another Princess Anne dairyman, was of the same opinion. George Waller, a beef cattle producer, and John Potter both agreed that for beef cattle the Red Clover has Lespedeza best hands down. Two bales of Red Clover hay will equal three bales of Lespedeza hay for beef cattle.

It is interesting to note that before 1958 Joe Hershberger was the only farmer in Princess Anne County growing Red Clover for hay. In 1958 we got Joe to have a demonstration with his Red Clover hay and in addition we had three others to plant Red Clover for demonstration purposes. They were John Potter, Pembroke Farms, and George Waller. I have been making some observations, this year, on the Red Clover planted as a result of these demonstrations. In addition to the four that had Red Clover last year, nine other farmers have planted Red Clover this year. Some farmers do not have well drained land on which to produce alfalfa and have to result to Lespedeza. Now dairymen say that Lespedeza is not a good hay for dairy cattle. Now with the four demonstrations we were trying to find a hay that would give high quality and high yields at an economical cost on land that would not produce alfalfa and I sincerely believe that we have found the answer in Red Clover. Red Clover seems to do very well on all types of land. The four demonstrations started last year were seeded on four different soil types. In my observations I have not been able to determine any difference in the Red Clover quality or yield on any of the four demonstrations.

Red Clover is seeded in the spring in small grain at the rate of 15 pounds per acre. After the small grain is harvested there is usually a cutting of Red Clover the latter part of July, then another cutting is received in October of five, seven or eight. May of the second year there is the big cutting of Red Clover and then in the latter part of July the second cutting and then the third cutting will again come in October or this cutting can be grazed if grazing is needed. This Red Clover sod goes through the winter very well and is ideal to precede a crop because of the tremendous amount of nitrogen that has been put into the soil by this Red Clover.

SMALL GRAIN LODGING

Many farmers have been asking why small grain has fallen down and will it come back up.

Let's answer the first question first. The basic reason why small grain lodges is because too much nitrogen has been applied to the crop in the spring. Now too much nitrogen might be 30 pounds on one field and it might be 50 pounds on another field or more on still some other fields. The difference is due to the general fertility level of the soil and the amount of nitrogen left in the soil from preceding crops. In talking with farmers about their small grain that has gone down, I have found that in most cases where 40 pounds of nitrogen or less was applied to the small grain the grain did not lodge. March that very little lodging has taken place. Where farmers applied 50 pounds or more of nitrogen during this period, lodging has taken place. This nitrogen could be in the pure form or any of its nitrate forms or in a complete fertilizer. It doesn't seem to make any difference in the lodging between using straight nitrogen and a complete fertilizer, when the same pounds of nitrogen has been applied. In other words if 50 pounds of nitrogen per acre will lodge small grain, then 500 pounds of 10-10-10 will lodge the small grain as quickly as 25 bags of 20-10-10 nitrogen material will. Now for the second question, will this small grain come back up that has lodged? The answer to that is twofold. First, some small grain did come back up three or four days after the wind and rain that we had a couple of weeks ago. If the small grain has not come back up by this time it is very doubtful if it will. Generally speaking from some of the conversations that I have had with wheat growers where 40 pounds of nitrogen or less was used as a top-dressing this spring, very little lodging has taken place and that which did fall down has now come back up about 75 or 85%. Where 50 pounds or more of nitrogen was used, lodging was experienced much more and the small grain had not come back up after it did lodge.

NEW HERD OF ANGUS BEEF CATTLE

Mr. Sam Jones, owner of the Sajo Farms, recently purchased a small Angus herd from Mr. S. W. Buckner at Princess Anne. Mr. Jones bought seven very fine Angus heifers and seven Angus cows. Three of these cows had calves by their side, the other four are to calve very soon. Mr. Jones plans to increase his cow numbers in the very near future. We are looking forward to having another fine herd of Angus cattle in Princess Anne County.

NEW DHIA MEMBER

Simon Hershberger of Holland Swamp Road recently joined the Coastal DHIA. Simon will begin testing in about two months. Simon has a new milking parlor and will use the new milko-meter in his testing program. It is also very possible that Simon's Dairy Herd Improvement records will be kept electronically on IBM records.

SMALL GRAIN AND IRISH POTATOES LOOK GOOD

Prospects for a good small grain and Irish potato crop look very good at this time. The rains that we have had recently is going to increase the yield of small grain and Irish potatoes. If we had not gotten the rain at this particular time small grain yields would have been low. The most critical period in the growth of small grain is in the milk stage. At this time if we do not get sufficient rainfall the size of the grain will be reduced, the grain will be of light weight and many will not develop. Since we did get this rain I feel like we will enjoy satisfactory yields if we continue to have ample rainfall from now on till harvest time.

Some Irish potatoes in the county have not received any rainfall for some time and are in need of rain at this time. However, for the most part they do look good and are looking forward to a good yield. As far as the price is concerned it is too early to tell whether the price will be sufficient or not for good returns.

DO YOU HAVE A NEED FOR MORE SUMMER PASTURE?

On most farms in Princess Anne County there is need for more grazing during July and August. Sudan grass or Pearl Millet can help you provide this additional grazing for your livestock during these two critical pasture months. Sudan grass or Pearl Millet grows best when permanent pastures such as Ladino Clover and Orchard Grass are the least productive.

A third to one-half acre of Sudan grass or Pearl Millet will usually provide adequate grazing for one animal during this period. You can lengthen the production period of both crops by seeding half the acreage early and the remainder a month to six weeks later.

There are three recommended varieties of Sudan grass for our area. There are certified Green Leaf, Certified Piper and Sweet Sudan Grass. The recommended varieties of Pearl Millet are Certified Gah! and Commercial Pearl Millet. When seeding Millet be sure to get the Pearl Millet and not Foxtail, because Foxtail Millet will not recover well after grazing.

Fertile well-Broadcast and disc in 500 to 800 pounds per acre of a 10-10-10 fertilizer. Sow the seed at the rate of 30 to 35 pounds per acre. Drilling will usually give the best results.

Seed your Sudan grass or Pearl Millet any time between now and up to July 1. Either should be ready for grazing about six to eight weeks.

SHORTING HOGS PROFITABLE PRACTICE FOR PRODUCERS

Hog producers can pocket extra profits if they sort their hogs out and sell them at proper weights. Topping out the animals weighing from 200 to 220 pounds has been an accepted practice for some time now. This practice has several advantages. For instance, marketing a pig crop in four or five different groups takes some of the gamble out of hog raising. Topping the hogs means more efficient use of feed, as feed efficiency drops off quickly as hogs go above 200 pounds.

A pound of gain can be put on for each 3 pounds of feed up to about 200 pounds of weight. At 3 cents a pound for feed, this is a cost of 9 cents per pound of gain. But the same hogs will eat from 4.5 to 5.5 pounds of feed for each pound of gain after they reach 200 pounds. This moves the feed cost up to an average of about 15 cents per pound. A hog will put on only a small amount of lean meat from 200 pounds on. Most of the gain is in the form of lard. As the weight goes up, so does the proportion of fat to lean on a carcass. So sorting out and topping the animals makes it possible to market meatier hogs.
